Course Description

This course introduces the students to the basics in sound design and technology. Students will work on projects about design elements and design process. The course has four graded components: Sound Fundamentals, Design Elements, Sound Equipment, and Design Project. The first three components are evaluated by in-class presentations and quizzes. The Design Project consists of six progressive submissions which are graded independently. See the Evaluation of Grades section of this document for more details.

You will be able to find detailed instructions and guidelines on each of the graded elements on Canvas when they are assigned. Please do not hesitate to email the instructor if you have any questions about any of the components of the course.

Prerequisite Knowledge and Skills

An interest in design and production for live events. A willingness and desire to participate in the technical operation of productions at UF.

Course Goals and/or Objectives

- Understanding of the physical properties of sound.
- Introduction to design elements and sound equipment.
- Development of vocabulary and knowledge for engagement on a production.
- Demonstration of ability to sound design a mini production.
- Completion of lab requirements to gain hands-on experience in the shop and/or production.

Textbooks, Software and Instructional Materials

While there isn't a required textbook, the instructors will be suggesting reading and research and sharing a variety of instructional resources. The students will work with a personal workbook or journal of notes and handouts to refer to at the end of the course.

Protect Your Privacy

The virtual class meetings rely on Zoom. Please read the Zoom Privacy Statement and protect yourselves. <https://zoom.us/privacy>

Course Fees

Material and supply fees are assessed for certain courses to offset the cost of materials or supply items consumed in the course of instruction. A list of approved courses and fees is published in the Schedule of Courses each semester. (UF-3.0374 Regulations of the University of Florida).

Material and supply and equipment use fee information is available from the academic departments or from the schedule of courses (Florida Statutes 1009.24). The UF Schedule of Courses shows that this course has additional course fees of $136.88.

COVID-19

We will have face-to-face instructional sessions to accomplish the student learning objectives of this course. In response to COVID-19, the following policies and requirements are in place to maintain your learning environment and to enhance the safety of our in-classroom interactions.

- You are required to wear approved face coverings at all times during class and within buildings. Following and enforcing these policies and requirements are all of our responsibility. Failure to do so will lead to a report to the Office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution.
- This course has been assigned a physical classroom with enough capacity to maintain physical distancing (6 feet between individuals) requirements. Please utilize designated seats and maintain appropriate spacing between students. Please do not move desks or stations.
- Sanitizing supplies are available in the classroom if you wish to wipe down your desks prior to sitting down and at the end of the class.
- Follow your instructor's guidance on how to enter and exit the classroom. Practice physical distancing to the extent possible when entering and exiting the classroom.
- If you are experiencing COVID-19 symptoms (<https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/symptoms-testing/symptoms.html>), please use the UF Health screening system (<https://coronavirus.ufhealth.org/screen-test-protect/covid-19-exposure-and-symptoms-who-do-i-call-if/>) and follow the instructions on whether you are able to attend class.
 - Course materials will be provided to you with an excused absence, and you will be given a reasonable amount of time to make up work (<https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/>).

Our online class sessions may be audio visually recorded for students in the class to refer back and for enrolled students who are unable to attend live. Students who participate with their camera engaged or utilize a profile image are agreeing to have their video or image recorded. If you are unwilling to consent to have your profile or video image recorded, be sure to keep your camera off and do not use a profile image. Likewise, students who un-mute during class and participate orally are agreeing to have their voices recorded. If you are not willing to consent to have your voice recorded during class, you will need to keep your mute button activated and communicate exclusively using the "chat" feature, which allows students to type questions and comments live. The chat will not be recorded or shared. As in all courses, unauthorized recording and unauthorized sharing of recorded materials is prohibited.

Course Policies

Assignments

There are a number of class projects. Some projects will become the basis for later projects, making it especially important to finish on time. Most projects will need to be completed in the week interim between course meetings. Due dates of project are posted in the Course Schedule section of this document. Detailed project guidelines will be posted on Canvas.

Grading

Your assignment grades will be based on these factors:

- Your understanding of the assignment and your ability to follow instructions.
- The completion of the project during the time required.
- All factors that are in the assignment are addressed completely and correctly.
- Ability to discuss your project using the correct terminology when called upon.

Participation and Attendance

The success of this course is based on discussion and class participation. Attendance is vital. Only one (1) unexcused absence from class will be permitted without penalty. Each additional unexcused absence will lower your final grade by 5%. Two (2) late arrivals and/or early departures to/from class will count as one (1) absence. Three unexcused absences will result in a failing grade in this class.

Excused absences are consistent with university policies in the undergraduate catalog (<https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/>) and require appropriate documentation.

Quiz/Exam Policy

Quizzes will be given in class as detailed in the Course Schedule section of this document. There is no final exam.

Make-up Policy

Late and made-up assignments will be marked down by 80. Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

Course Technology

Students will be required to have access to, and use a personal computer with the access to the Internet. A Mac computer is preferred but not required. A computer with camera and microphone is required for class meetings via Zoom. Students should have personal access to the Internet. Other technologies will be introduced during the course session. UF Canvas Student Help FAQs can be accessed here <https://elearning.ufl.edu/student-help-faqs/>

Course Communications

Students can communicate directly with the Instructor regarding the course material via email.

Electronic communication must demonstrate a formal tone and style, and unless absolutely urgent, will be responded to Mon - Fri 08:00 - 17:00.

Course Evaluation

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via ufl.bluera.com/ufl/. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/.

UF Policies

Honest Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (sccr.dso.ufl.edu/process/student-conduct-code/) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Class Demeanor

Students are expected to arrive to class on time and behave in a manner that is respectful to the instructor and to fellow students. Please avoid the use of cell phones and restrict eating to outside of the classroom. Opinions held by other students should be respected in discussion, and conversations that do not contribute to the discussion should be held at minimum, if at all.

Students requiring accommodations

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center by visiting <https://disability.ufl.edu/students/get-started/>. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

Netiquette Communication Courtesy

All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, threaded discussions and chats, more information can be found at: <http://teach.ufl.edu/wp-content/uploads/2012/08/NetiquetteGuideforOnlineCourses.pdf>

Online course evaluations

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/>.
