OBJECTIVES:

1. To develop a deeper understanding of the components of storytelling.
2. To develop language and skills in visual storytelling across a variety of theatrical productions beyond the traditional.
3. To fully and clearly express design ideas through visual and verbal communication.
4. To gain flexibility in the application of a foundational design process.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

1. Students will develop skills in visual storytelling.
2. Students will gain an understanding of project management for the designer.
3. Student will understand a variety of industries that utilize storytelling and the foundation of theatrical design processes.

REQUIRED TEXTS:

The Little Prince by Antoine de Saint-Exupéry -

This is a children's book not a script.

SUPPLIES:

Students will need a variety of art supplies for rough and final work on the design projects; these will vary according to individual preference. Some art supplies will be available for in-class experimentation before students invest in their own supplies.

COMPUTER LAB:

Students have access to SoTD Computer Lab via their student ID. Please contact Todd Bedell (tbedell@arts.ufl.edu) if you have any questions about access.

GRADING:

The projects will be evaluated and critiqued in stages, with the project grade based on these stages of work, including artistic/conceptual work application of feedback, presentation, and adherence to deadlines. In theatre, time is money, and opening night is unlikely to be delayed until a designer manages to complete work.

The grading scale will be as follows:

A 94-100 % A- 90-93%
B+ 87-89% B 83-86% B- 80-82%
C+ 77-79% C 73-76% C- 70-72%
D 68-69% E 0-67%

ALL PROJECTS MUST BE SUBMITTED TO CANVAS FOR GRADING

The university grading policies for assigning grade points may be found at <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx>

The final grade for the semester will be weighted as follows:

Project Management	15%
Concert Design	15 %
Experiential Design	25%
World Tour Spectacle Design	35%
Participation	10 %

LATE WORK WILL BE REDUCED ONE LETTER GRADE PER CLASS MEETING.

ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS:

The success of this course is based on discussion and class participation. Attendance is vital. Only one (1) unexcused absences from class will be permitted without penalty. Each additional unexcused absence will lower your final grade by 5%. Two (2) late arrivals and/or early departures to/from class will count as one (1) absence. Three unexcused absences will result in a failing grade in this class.

Excused absences are consistent with university policies in the undergraduate catalog (<https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/>) and require appropriate documentation.

COVID-19 Accommodation: Students who are medically required to quarantine will have documentation from a medical provider. Students who self-quarantine must communicate with the instructor and “attend” courses remotely synchronously, when available, or asynchronously if approved by the instructor.

PROJECT DESCRIPTIONS

PROJECT MANAGEMENT:

This project will require no final submission. Grade is based upon active participation in class conversation, planning of projects for the semester, and periodic self - critique.

Students will apply discussed fundamentals of project management for the designer to the weekly planning of this course. Students will be expected to bring calendar information to class early in the semester and contribute ideas to the layout of their projects for the semester. Students will collectively schedule broad deadlines for projects. Once this calendar has been designed, students will work to further distill personal deadlines that are in alignment with best practices of project management. Self-critique will be required at the completion of each project with a goal of improving personal planning as each student progresses through the semester.

THE LITTLE PRINCE: A STORY TOLD IN 4 WAYS

Students will work within groups focusing on their area of design unless otherwise requested by the student. The Little Prince will be conceptualized and visually told in 4 variants. The foundation for design for each style of storytelling is the traditional theatrical design process as represented in the All-Designer's documents. Students will work in class to modify these processes to accommodate considerations of each production style. Grades will be based on active participation in design processes and collaboration and design visualization work.
