OBJECTIVES:
1. To develop a deeper understanding of the components of storytelling.
2. To develop language and skills in visual storytelling across a variety of theatrical productions beyond the traditional.
3. To fully and clearly express design ideas through visual and verbal communication.
4. To gain flexibility in the application of a foundational design process.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:
1. Students will develop skills in visual storytelling.
2. Students will gain an understanding of project management for the designer.
3. Student will understand a variety of industries that utilize storytelling and the foundation of theatrical design processes.

REQUIRED TEXTS:
The Little Price by Antoine de Saint-Exupéry -
This is a children's book not a script.

SUPPLIES:
Students will need a variety of art supplies for rough and final work on the design projects; these will vary according to individual preference. Some art supplies will be available for in-class experimentation before students invest in their own supplies.
COMPUTER LAB:

Students have access to SoTD Computer Lab via their student ID. Please contact Todd Bedell (tbedell@arts.ufl.edu) if you have any questions about access.

GRADING:

The projects will be evaluated and critiqued in stages, with the project grade based on these stages of work, including artistic/conceptual work application of feedback, presentation, and adherence to deadlines. In theatre, time is money, and opening night is unlikely to be delayed until a designer manages to complete work.

The grading scale will be as follows:

A 94-100 %  A- 90-93%
B+ 87-89%  B 83-86%  B- 80-82%
C+ 77-79%  C 73-76%  C- 70-72%
D 68-69%   E 0-67%

ALL PROJECTS MUST BE SUBMITTED TO CANVAS FOR GRADING

The university grading policies for assigning grade points may be found at https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx

The final grade for the semester will be weighted as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Project</th>
<th>Weight</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Project Management</td>
<td>15%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Concert Design</td>
<td>15 %</td>
</tr>
<tr>

<td>25%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>World Tour Spectacle Design</td>
<td>35%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Participation</td>
<td>10 %</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

LATE WORK WILL BE REDUCED ONE LETTER GRADE PER CLASS MEETING.
ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS:

The success of this course is based on discussion and class participation. Attendance is vital. Only one (1) unexcused absences from class will be permitted without penalty. Each additional unexcused absence will lower your final grade by 5%. Two (2) late arrivals and/or early departures to/from class will count as one (1) absence. Three unexcused absences will result in a failing grade in this class.

Excused absences are consistent with university policies in the undergraduate catalog (https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/) and require appropriate documentation.

*COVID-19 Accommodation: Students who are medically required to quarantine will have documentation from a medical provider. Students who self-quarantine must communicate with the instructor and “attend” courses remotely synchronously, when available, or asynchronously if approved by the instructor.

PROJECT DESCRIPTIONS

PROJECT MANAGEMENT:

This project will require no final submission. Grade is based upon active participation in class conversation, planning of projects for the semester, and periodic self-critique.

Students will apply discussed fundamentals of project management for the designer to the weekly planning of this course. Students will be expected to bring calendar information to class early in the semester and contribute ideas to the layout of their projects for the semester. Students will collectively schedule broad deadlines for projects. Once this calendar has been designed, students will work to further distill personal deadlines that are in alignment with best practices of project management. Self-critique will be required at the completion of each project with a goal of improving personal planning as each student progresses through the semester.

THE LITTLE PRINCE: A STORY TOLD IN 4 WAYS

Students will work within groups focusing on their area of design unless otherwise requested by the student. The Little Prince will be conceptualized and visually told in 4 variants. The foundation for design for each style of storytelling is the traditional theatrical design process as represented in the All-Designer’s documents. Students will work in class to modify these processes to accommodate considerations of each production style. Grades will be based on active participation in design processes and collaboration and design visualization work.

COVID-19 GUIDELINES:

We will have face-to-face instructional sessions to accomplish the student learning objectives of this course. In response to COVID-19, the following policies and requirements are in place to maintain your learning environment and to enhance the safety of our in-classroom interactions.

1. You are required to wear approved face coverings at all times during class and within buildings. Following and enforcing these policies and requirements are all of our responsibility. Failure to do so will lead to a report to the Office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution.

2. This course has been assigned a physical classroom with enough capacity to maintain physical distancing (6 feet between individuals) requirements. Please utilize designated seats and maintain appropriate spacing between students. Please do not move desks or stations.

3. Sanitizing supplies are available in the classroom if you wish to wipe down your desks prior to sitting down and at the end of the class.

4. Follow your instructor’s guidance on how to enter and exit the classroom. Practice physical distancing to the extent possible when entering and exiting the classroom.

ZOOM ETIQUETTE:

You are required to use video in all zoom based class sessions. Classes are not recorded and participation is required.

Please keep audio muted when not speaking.

We will utilize reactions and breakout rooms. If you are unfamiliar with these functions, please familiarize yourself at ufl.zoom.us.

Zoom Classes should be thought of as attending a public meeting. Appropriate attire and setting should be considered.

Zoom Fatigue is REAL. We have designed this course to vary the class meeting. If a break is needed, please ASK - your colleagues may feel the same way!

USE OF ELECTRONIC DEVICES:

The use of cell phones or other mobile devices is disruptive, and therefore is prohibited during class. Except in emergencies, those using such devices must leave the classroom for the remainder of the class period. Classes may not be recorded without express permission from the instructor.

ONLINE COURSE EVALUATIONS:

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at https://evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/

HONESTY POLICY:

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conducthonorcode/) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions.
Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel.

If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES:

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.
