COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The Spring 2021 seminar will include the visiting artist series, a selection of theoretical and historical readings, screenings, discussions with some speakers from the series, and discussions among both the Photo and Sculpture spring seminar participants twice weekly. Seminar will engage graduate students in dialogues regarding contemporary art, current events, theory, and professional practice.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

- Research
- Carry out readings and prepare short presentations for each seminar session.
- Produce small group reflective presentation at semester's end.
- Analyze style, substance, and research surrounding each speaker's presentation and professional practice.

TEXTS:

No purchase of text is necessary. All texts will be shared as .pdf files or as URL hyperlinks. Screenings will also be made available via UFL hyperlinks.

SEMINAR METHODS

The seminar structure includes weekly readings, lectures, discussions, and screenings. In an average seminar session, there will be student-led discussion of assigned readings and some lecture or contextual information offered by faculty.

ONLINE POLICY

Our class sessions may be audio visually recorded for students in the class to refer back and for enrolled students who are unable to attend live. However, a majority of the class will not be recorded. Vital info like for lectures and demos I will do my best to record. Students who participate with their camera engaged or utilize a profile image are agreeing to have their video or image recorded. If you are unwilling to consent to have your profile or video image recorded, be sure to keep your camera off and do not use a profile image. Likewise, students who un-mute during class and participate orally are agreeing to have their voices recorded. If you are not willing to consent to have your voice recorded during class, you will need to keep your mute button activated and communicate exclusively using the "chat" feature, which allows students to type questions and comments live. The chat will not be recorded or shared. As in all courses, unauthorized recording and unauthorized sharing of recorded materials is prohibited. I will be very mindful to inform you about when recording is going on so you can take the appropriate measures. In most cases you can assume recording is not going on.

COURSE EXPECTATIONS

- Completion of reading and writing assignments.
- Attendance at all assigned lectures and discussions.
- Readings must be completed as scheduled for discussion.
- Active participation in class discussions including prepared comments for each reading or screening at each seminar meeting (readings and screenings that are assigned for that week/date).

EVALUATION:

Your efforts in Graduate Sculpture Seminar will be evaluated on with the following criteria:

- Attendance at all seminar meetings with prepared commentary on all assigned readings, screenings, or artist talks. Any session missed or any session for which the student has not prepared commentary for the seminar discussion results in a deduction of 2% (two percentage points) from the semester grade. Attendance for all zoom meetings is kept by zoom. Participation and preparation is assessed and evaluated by the faculty member.
