Course Description
This course considers how the idea of—and the stereotypical images of—the Middle Ages have been formed and reformed in both creative and scholarly works from the long 19th century to the present. Subjects will range from architectural restoration and revivals to popular literature and film. We will consider not only the intellectual and artistic stakes of “inventing” the Middle Ages, but also their political stakes and reverberations.

Course Goals
Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Examine and assess primary sources and scholarly literature of art history
2. Formulate oral and written analyses of historical and scholarly sources and works of art in their historical and cultural contexts
3. Prepare and lead seminar discussions
Textbooks
Readings will be made available electronically

Requirements:

- Attendance at live zoom class sessions and active participation in discussion 15%
- Preparation, presentation, and discussion-leading of three topics on the syllabus 5% each = 15%
- Object Description Paper 5%
- 3 Reaction Papers, 5% each = 15%
- Peer Review Participation 5%
- Selection, preparation, presentation, and discussion-leading of an article pertinent to the student’s research project 10%
- Presentation of final research paper 10%
- Research paper 25%

Course Policies
Attendance: You are expected to attend class in real time online via Zoom Conferences. Students enrolled in the face-to-face section should contact the instructor for details. We will take a brief screen break once per hour. Your attendance is recorded automatically by Zoom. I reserve the right to mark you absent if you arrive late or leave early. If technical difficulties prevent your connecting or you lose connection, send me an email to let me know about your difficulties. I will excuse absences for technical difficulties as long as you work to resolve them before they become a chronic problem. Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found in the online catalogue at: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx.

Due dates: Please take a look at your calendar at the beginning of the semester to see if you have any commitments (for example, religious holidays, family obligations, or extracurricular activities) that conflict with lectures, due dates, and exam times. If you do have a conflict, please contact me well in advance to clear your absence or discuss the possibility of an extension. Make-up or early exams can only be offered in exceptional circumstances, including those required by the DRC or Registrar’s office. Please request any extension in advance of the due date. Each day late for any assignment will result in a lowered 1/3 letter grade for that assignment (A to A- for example).

Zoom etiquette: Please see guidelines at the end of this syllabus and posted to the course website

Email policy: You are requested to use your UFL email as your primary email. Important information, including readings, assignments, etc., will be disseminated via Canvas announcements. Please make sure that you are signed up to receive notification of course announcements. Emails sent to the professor or to the graduate assistants will usually be returned within 48 hours.

Accommodation: Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to me when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

Course Evaluations: Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on ten criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at https://evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results.

Academic Honesty: UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (sccr.dso.ufl.edu/process/student-conduct-code/) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please ask me.

UF’s policies regarding academic honesty, the honor code, and student conducted related to the honor code will be strictly enforced. This means a report will be filed with the Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution office. For information on what constitutes plagiarism, consult the UF Plagiarism Guide at http://web.uflib.ufl.edu/msl/07b/studentplagiarism.html and “Misues of Sources” on the course website. If you have any questions, please ask me. An online plagiarism checker service may be used to screen papers.

Zoom Etiquette

1. Turn on your camera. Don’t lurk behind a blank screen or static photo. My lecturing to a screen of black boxes gets boring for everybody. It lowers my energy and engagement, which lowers yours, which lowers mine… And let’s face it, when you turn off the camera you’re free to do other things while you listen. With the cameras on, we can create a more active and interactive class. If you have ongoing issues with technology or bandwidth that interfere with keeping your camera on, please contact me privately.

2. What if I need to move around, talk to my mom, shoo my cat, etc? Turn your video off for a few moments and then turn it back on when you’re done.
3. Feel free to use a virtual background. A virtual background can give you privacy, or it can just be fun.

4. No political or offensive messaging in your virtual background. Of course, there are few limits to your freedom of speech in class discussion or messages on clothing. Just don’t use your virtual background as a platform, it’s distracting for me and the rest of the class.

5. No shirt, no service. Please wear what you would to a live class. Shoes optional.

6. Mute your audio when you’re not speaking.

7. Try to log into class from a distraction-free, quiet environment. I realize this might not always be possible. With a virtual background and mute you can prevent your environment from spilling over into the class.

8. If you have a question, or want to say something, please use the chat. You may address it to the class as a whole or to one of the TAs (Rachel and Danielle) in the chat. Keep in mind that Zoom records the chat and sends me a copy, including your “private” chat with your friends and classmates.

9. No screen shots. Let’s respect everyone’s privacy and refrain from photographing your classmates, TAs, and me without permission—which also means no distributing photos by, say, posting them on social media.
