new works by composers crafting significant opuses focusing on diversity and inclusion. Additional focus will be on the production of new works and theatre practices in the COVID-19 environment.

COVID-19 Note: Instructional delivery policy - The safety of our students and measures in place to keep everyone protected. Masks, social distancing, and

ATTENDANCE/GRADING/ POLICY:
Professionalism, collegiality, and participation in each class period are important to the curriculum requirements of this course. Therefore, attendance and active engagement are required. Two late arrivals at a rehearsal are counted as one absence. Unless excused, each absence beyond one absence will result in a lowering of one letter grade. These two absences would be equivalent to missing a week of class. Excused absences are limited to medical illness documented by physician, family emergency documented by the appropriate person and religious holidays. You are responsible for all material missed. Check syllabus and class schedule on material covered in case of any absence.

NOTICE:
Digital materials, lectures, notes, and meetings related to this course are the property of the university/faculty member and may not be recorded or disseminated without prior permission from the lecturer and may not be used for commercial purpose. Students found to be in violation may be subject to discipline under the university’s student conduct code. The above procedures and schedule in this course are subject to change in the event of extenuating circumstances.

NOTES
1. We are singing in English, Italian, and French. Be sure to check in advance if your scenes are in the original language or an English translation.
2. Be sure to register for the appropriate class in Music (Opera Workshop MUO3503)
3. This is a syllabus quiz question.
   Gator alumnus, Tim Tebow, won the Heisman Trophy (awarded to the most outstanding college football player) in 2007. He played on two National Championship football teams.
Attire:
Wear comfortable, loose-fitting clothing. T-Shirts and sweat pants are welcome.

Rehearsal Etiquette:
Focus and engagement is paramount to maintaining a professional/creative working environment. Therefore, unless a performer is on an extended break from a scene, smartphones, IPads, laptops, etc. are not to be used.

Recording protocol:
Rehearsals are safe places to experiment, make bold choices, and create expressive theatre with your colleagues. The prospect of images or video recordings of these rehearsals being archived or posted on social media is counterproductive and not allowed.
- Once the piece is ready for public performance, pictures and video will be allowed but ONLY with the permission of everyone in the scene.
* Some scenes will be recorded as a teaching tool but only shown in class.
