Catalog Description

Practice and principles of fundamentals and stylistic characteristics common to ballet (Contemporary Ballet Practices), jazz (Contemporary African and African Diasporic Dance Practices), and modern (Contemporary Dance Practices). (H) 3 credits

Fundamentals of Dance is designed to provide accessibility to the world of dance for all students - novice or pre-professional. Along with learning the principles of the dance techniques, you will discover the rich heritage, challenging discipline, diverse aesthetic, as well as your place in the vast spectrum of dance. There is truth in advertising – as once you are successful in this class, these fundamentals become the basis for achieving excellence in higher levels and making informed connections with how this art interacts with your life. The following objectives provide the direction for the course:

Objectives:

- To provide a student with the history, basic techniques, and contemporary references relevant to accessing a basic understanding of ballet (Contemporary Dance Practices), jazz (Contemporary African and African Diasporic Dance Practices), and modern (Contemporary Dance Practices).
- Enhance the mind/body connection through the application of sound biomechanical principles as they relate to dance, such as practicing proper alignment, learning basic human anatomy, and learning of alternative approaches to movement study. This knowledge will be directly applied to the various styles of dance learned in class
- Practice elements of performing and explore performance quality, discovering your own potential and personal style while developing your kinesthetic memory
- Experience, discuss and write about live dance performances

Dance Etiquette and Attire:

Dance is an art and requires personal discipline and motivation. Respect for other students and the instructor is of the utmost importance. When in class you will be attentive and active. Be aware of the appropriate times to talk and/or sit.

- Attire should be form-fitting and appropriate for movement. Jazz shoes may be used on Zoom and socks in the studio.
- Hair needs to be pulled back neatly and away from face.
- No warmers unless they are form fitting. All warmers should be removed following warm-up.
- Knee pads are encouraged.
- No oversized clothing.
- Your ankles should be visible.
- No large jewelry, including all non-stud earrings, necklaces & watches.
- No chewing gum.

Attendance Guide:

SoTD Dance Attendance:

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies.

- Mindful participation is the only way to meet the objectives of this course.
- Attendance, which is mandatory, means that when you enter the classroom or virtual space, you are present, alert, and contributing to the progress of the class every second.
- If you are not present when attendance is taken, or class begins this will count as an absence.
- For extended health issues refer to the Injury and Illness Policy in the current SoTD Handbook (SoTD website)

Information on make-up work: Any make-up work requires proper and official documentation from professional sources and presented to the instructor in a timely fashion. To earn credit for an absence you must do two things:

- 1) Immediately after your return to class, turn in approved/legal documentation to instructor
- 2) Make-up the class with an approved assignment. All Make-up assignments for excused absences must be completed by the last day of classes of the semester.

Makeup classes for unexcused absences are not available.

Attendance Policy:

Participation is the only way to meet the objectives of this class. This requires you to be in class on time in the proper attire and with your attention focused on dance. Once in the studio, you should be warming up and stretching to prepare yourself for class.

- Students can take 2 absences with no documentation and no penalty.
- If the third absence is unexcused, it will result in 5% deduction from the final grade.
- Excused or unexcused, on the third absence, a meeting is required with the instructor and/or area faculty to assess the student's continued participation in the course.

- If the fourth absence and all subsequent absences are unexcused, each will result in an additional 5% deduction from the final grade.
- Requirements / opportunities to make up missed material for unexcused absences is up to the instructor's discretion and may be made available through virtual classes or online assignments. Communication is important.

Any absence from class for the following reasons must be supported by official acceptable documentation to avoid a grade penalty:

- Illness - doctor's note must be on official letterhead with address and phone number, noting the date and time of visit and diagnosis verifying that an absence from class is warranted, doctor name and signature.

Note: Due to the hybrid nature of studio courses this year and in response to COVID-19 precautionary measures, students must not attend any in-person portion of the course if:

- The student is presenting any symptoms related to the disease
- The student is not cleared for campus
- The student has been in contact with someone known to have the disease

There will be flexibility in documentation requirement if a student must miss class due to Covid-19 preventions. A Zoom link will be available for class meeting times on Canvas to virtually attend class. If virtual attendance is impacted, then students should contact the instructor as soon as possible to explain the situation and determine the best course of action. If you are experiencing COVID-19 symptoms, please use the UF Health screening system and follow the instructions on whether you are able to attend class. Course materials will be provided to you with an excused absence, and you will be given a reasonable amount of time to make up work.

To help organize accommodations, students should inform the instructor by the end of the second week of classes of religious observances of their faith that may conflict with class attendance this semester.

Students who elect to enroll in a hybrid course are expected to participate in in-person instruction. If a student is uncomfortable attending in-person, the student should make arrangements with the instructor to "attend" all class meetings synchronously, when available, or asynchronously.

We will have face-to-face instructional sessions to accomplish the student learning objectives of this course. In response to COVID-19, the following policies and requirements are in place to maintain your learning environment and to enhance the safety of our in-classroom interactions

Barring the above circumstances, students are expected to be in attendance daily and to be on time.

UF Absence Policy

- <https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/>
- Students are responsible for satisfying all academic objectives as defined by the instructor. Absences count from the first-class meeting.
- In general, acceptable reasons for absence from or failure to participate in class include illness, serious family emergencies, special curricular requirements (e.g., judging trips, field trips, professional conferences), military obligation, severe weather conditions, religious holidays and participation in official university activities such as music performances, athletic competition or debate. Absences from class for court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena) must be excused. Other reasons also may be approved.
- You cannot participate in classes unless you are registered officially or approved to audit with evidence of having paid audit fees. The Office of the University Registrar provides official class rolls to instructors.
- If you do not participate in at least one of the first two class meetings of a course or laboratory in which you are registered, and you have not contacted the department to indicate your intent, you can be dropped from the course. You must not assume that you will be dropped, however.
- The university recognizes the right of the individual professor to make attendance mandatory. After due warning, professors can prohibit further attendance and subsequently assign a failing grade for excessive absences.

Please come to me with all questions and concerns throughout the semester. You can make an appointment or talk to me immediately before or after class about your progress or if you have any questions. ASSIGNMENT AND TESTS

Technical and Artistic Progression (15 points) An ongoing in-class observation primarily for checking our communication goals and your degree of successful effort. Absences could affect this grade.

Discussion Post (15 points each for a total of 75 points) On the discussion board on Canvas, each week you will be given prompts that reference the readings for the modules. You will watch the video posted by the instructor on the discussion and then write an initial post based on the prompts. Your post should reflect your understanding of the concepts and terminology presented in the module. (minimum 100 words)

Discussion Response (5 points each for a total of 25 points) You will read and view all the discussion posts. You will reply to one post of your choice. In your response you need to reference statements made by your fellow student as well as compare and contrast to your own post Museum Paper (10 points) You will take a trip to the Harn Museum or The Museum of Natural History on Hull Rd. to find an inspirational exhibition for your midterm movement project. Submit a page description, including artist and title, (in Canvas) of the artwork or exhibition you are using for your choreographic inspiration. The choreography will be presented as part of your midterm evaluation.

In-class Project (Mid-term) (25 points) Based on discussions and related assignments, the instructor will inform the class on the details of this project, which will be worked on in-class. This project will provide you with the basics on how the class will proceed with the final project

Final Project (50 points) Each student will choose one of the dance techniques discussed in Modules 6 & 7 to create a movement study that will relate to the historical context of the selected technique. Submissions can be via video on the Discussion Board or presented live in-class. Each student needs to include a minimum one-page reflection paper. Detailed instructions are located on the Modules page.

From the above selection, the student may create a solo or work collaboratively to choreograph a 1.5 to

2-minute composition. It is up to you to choose your own group of dancers to work with. If you need assistance, let me know. There will be time in class available for working on projects, but also be prepared to meet outside of class if needed. The time spent in class working on your project is part of participation/attire and will affect your final grade. Absences are discouraged during this time and will affect your final project grade. If working with others then this project is about everyone in the group. Work Together! Make sure you exchange phone numbers/email addresses with other members in your group. More information will be provided in class.

Final Project Reflection Also, every dancer needs to hand in a one page typed, double space journal on their final project experience. This is your final performance for this class. Include costumes, props (if needed) and whatever else your dance needs. Have FUN and be creative. This is your opportunity.

Final Project Evaluation: In-class work – 10 points
Choreography/ Costume/makeup/props – 15 points
Performance and Video– 15 points
Reflection – 10 points

Reading You are required to keep up with the reading of the text. Material in the text will be continually referenced in class and we will also have lectures and discussions on each chapter. Read this syllabus thoroughly!

Makeup Papers for excused absences are due by June 16th. Please write “Makeup Paper” under your name and the date of the class that you are making up.
Papers will not be accepted after June 19th.
