Course Description/Purpose:
TPA 4946: Production Practicum – Stage Management, is a course for undergraduate School of Theatre and Dance (SoTD) students that examines the application of stage management techniques and artistry by serving as a Stage Manager, Assistant Stage Manager or Production Assistant on a SoTD production.

Course Objectives and Student Outcomes:
- Demonstrate organizational, time management and communication skills
- Explore the collaborative relationship between stage managers and other members of the artistic and production team
- Further refine skills in project management design, paperwork development, leadership, film session/recording session management, and other aspects of stage management
- Consider how technology can support and advance traditional stage management practices
- Foster inclusive rehearsal and creative spaces
- Practice UF/SoTD health and safety procedures
- Examine the role of stage manager as an artistic contributor to a production
- Complete a digital production book

Suggested Texts:

Required Materials:
- Access to a computer with Google Docs (using UF email credentials) and/or Microsoft Word and Microsoft Excel programs
- Access to a computer with internet connectivity to use the course Canvas site and web based platforms including Zoom, SignUpGenius, Google Drive, Basecamp, etc.
- Computer software with ability to convert documents to PDF files
- An email address and phone with voicemail capability that you check frequently

Course Requirements & Expectations:
- Actively participate in all auditions, meetings, rehearsals, and performances for your production
- Facilitate/participate in Prep Week (to be scheduled with Stage Management Advisor)
• Facilitate the pre-rehearsal process through the closing of your production
• Communicate and collaborate with all members of the artistic and production team in a timely, specific, and thoughtful way
• Complete all production paperwork specific to your production
• Complete meeting minutes/notes, rehearsal reports/notes, and daily schedules as per the following:
  o Meeting minutes/notes: distribute within 48 hours of a production meeting
  o Rehearsal and performance reports/notes and daily schedules: distribute by 8am the following day (including weekends)
• Maintain an online callboard and Basecamp page in collaboration with the Production Manager
• Foster teamwork and collaboration within the stage management team
• Delegate responsibilities while providing support and assistance when needed
• Maintain an inclusive and safe rehearsal/performance environment and know University of Florida and School of Theatre and Dance emergency procedures
• Meet often and stay in constant communication with the entire stage management team and production manager to discuss upcoming events, challenges, paperwork, etc.
• Exercise time management skills with your SM production assignment, class work, additional production assignments, etc. Please remember to talk to your instructor if you are feeling overwhelmed.
• Exercise confidentiality as challenges and opportunities are explored
• Complete a digital production book
• Meet with Stage Management Instructor, Jenny Goelz within 2 weeks of the closing of your production for a reflection meeting

Attendance:
The success of this course and your assigned production is based on full stage management team participation. Attendance is vital. Unexcused absences are not permitted. Each unexcused absence will lower your final grade by 5%. Two (2) unexcused late arrivals and/or early departures will count as one (1) absence. Three unexcused absences will result in a failing grade in this class. Excused absences are consistent with university policies in the undergraduate catalog and require appropriate documentation. Click here to read the university attendance policies.

COVID-19:
In response to COVID-19, the following policies and requirements are in place to maintain your learning environment and to enhance the safety of our in-classroom interactions.
• You are required to wear approved face coverings at all times during class and within buildings. Following and enforcing these policies and requirements are all of our responsibility. Failure to do so will lead to a report to the Office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution.
• This course has been assigned a physical classroom with enough capacity to maintain physical distancing (6 feet between individuals) requirements. Please utilize designated seats and maintain appropriate spacing between students.
• Sanitizing supplies are available in the classroom if you wish to wipe down your desks prior to sitting down and at the end of the class.
• Follow your instructor’s guidance on how to enter and exit the classroom. Practice physical distancing to the extent possible when entering and exiting the classroom.
• If you are experiencing COVID-19 symptoms, please use the UF Health screening system and follow the instructions on whether you are able to attend class.
  o Course materials will be provided to you with an excused absence, and you will be given a reasonable amount of time to make up work.
• Click here to access additional SoTD COVID Guidelines.
Recording:
Class sessions (rehearsals) may be audio visually recorded for students to refer back and for students who are unable to attend live. Students who participate with their camera engaged or utilize a profile image are agreeing to have their video or image recorded. If you are unwilling to consent to have your profile or video image recorded, be sure to keep your camera off and do not use a profile image. Likewise, students who unmute during class and participate orally are agreeing to have their voices recorded. If you are not willing to consent to have your voice recorded during class (rehearsal), you will need to keep your mute button activated and communicate exclusively using the "chat" feature, which allows students to type questions and comments live. The chat will not be recorded or shared. As in all courses, unauthorized recording and unauthorized sharing of recorded materials is prohibited.

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Click here to read the Honor Code. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Click here for guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via ufl.bluer.com/ufl/. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students here.

If you anticipate challenges related to the format or requirements of this course, please meet with me. I would like us to discuss ways to ensure your full participation in the course. Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center. Click here to get started with the Disability Resource Center. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.
