How to get in touch with me:

For short questions: E-mail me or the teaching assistant. As a general rule, I answer e-mails between 9:00-5:00, and I try to answer emails within 24 hours of receipt, except on weekends.

For everything else: Come to office hours or make an appointment. Office hours are a chance for you to get help on assignments, go over material covered in class, talk about connections between class material and other ideas, and so on. I strongly encourage you to take advantage of this time.

Course Description:

An introduction to the principles and techniques of arranging, instrumentation, and orchestration. The course will introduce the standard instruments of the modern orchestra and wind ensemble, discuss choral arranging, and begin a discussion of creative orchestration practice.

Course Goals:

1. Students will be able to successfully arrange pre-existing musical works for a variety of ensembles, both vocal and instrumental.
2. Students will be able to describe in detail the performing capabilities of vocalists and instruments (orchestral and band).
3. Students will be able to write idiomatic musical notation for vocalists and instrumentalists.

Required Course Textbook

Adler, Samuel. The Study of Orchestration (4th edition).

Other Required Course Materials

Manuscript paper, computer notation software (Finale or Sibelius are recommended).

Attendance

Students are expected to attend all regularly scheduled classes. Each unexcused absence over three will result in a one-point deduction from your final grade. Any student with eight or more unexcused absences will fail the course. An excused absence is an approved UF event, a family emergency, or an illness. Students knowing in advance that they will miss a class must contact me beforehand via email. Otherwise students should contact me via e-mail to explain an absence within two days of the missed class if they wish for it to be excused. Please do not schedule non-urgent doctor's appointments during class time. In the case of an absence (excused or unexcused), that student is responsible for determining what material was covered, and what assignments were given.

Tardy Policy

Attendance will be taken at the beginning of class. Students who are not present when I take attendance will be marked as tardy. Three tardies will count as one unexcused absence. There are no excused tardies.

Evaluation:

Students will be evaluated through participation & preparation, in-class performance participation, assignments, quizzes, and projects.

Class Participation & Preparation:	5%
In-Class Performance Participation:	10%
Assignments & Quizzes:	30%
Projects:	40%
Final Project:	15%

Scale:

A = 93-100 / A- = 90-92 / B+ = 87-89 / B = 83-86 / B- = 80-82 / C+ = 77-79 / C = 73-76 C- = 70-72 / D+ = 67-69 / D = 66-65 / D- = 63-64 / E = 0-62

Late Submission Policy

Late assignment submissions (not including late submissions due to excused absences) will be accepted with a grade deduction up until the assignment has been gone over in class. Once a specific assignment has been gone over in class, late submissions for that assignment will automatically receive half-credit.

UF Student Honor Code
