Course Description:

Opera Workshop develops a student's performance and related professional skills specific to the creation of musical dramas. Repertoire will primarily include musical and character development rehearsals for Mozart's Così fan tutte. Additional focus will be on the production of Opera Outreach and Scenes performances

Course Goals:

1. To study the musical drama as a performer.
2. To develop professional rehearsal skills, etiquette, and the ability to work well within a group.
3. To improve the students' stage confidence and movement.
4. To develop the individual's ability to analyze characters, music, and libretti.

EVALUATION:

Weekly Rehearsals	60%
Participation/Attendance
Professional Conduct	20%
Final Project (Performance)	20%
	100%

Required Materials:

1. Musical Scores, provided
2. Computer with Audio and Video (Zoom) applications
3. Rehearsal Staging Attire: Rehearsal skirts, shoes, long pants, etc,
4. Audio Recorder at coachings and musical rehearsals

Final Exam: The Opera Theatre Workshop is performance based course. Students will be graded on their final public performance(s) and/or performance video creation.

ATTENDANCE/GRADING/ POLICY:

Professionalism, collegiality, and participation in each class period are important to the curriculum requirements of this course. Therefore, attendance and active engagement are required. Two late arrivals at a rehearsal are counted as one absence. Unless excused, each absence beyond one absence will result in a lowering of one letter grade. These two absences would be equivalent to missing a week of class. Excused absences are limited to medical illness documented by physician, family emergency documented by the appropriate person and religious holidays. You are responsible for all material missed. Check syllabus and class schedule on material covered in case of any absence.

NOTICE:

Digital materials, lectures, notes, and meetings related to this course are the property of the university/faculty member and may not be recorded or disseminated without prior permission from the lecturer and may not be used for commercial purpose. Students found to be in violation may be subject to discipline under the university's student conduct code. The above procedures and schedule in this course are subject to change in the event of extenuating circumstances.

NOTES

1. We are singing in Italian, French, German, and English. Be sure to check in advance if your scenes are in the original language or an English translation.
2. Be sure to register for the appropriate class in Music (Opera Workshop MUO3503)

Attire:

Wear comfortable, loose-fitting clothing. T-Shirts and sweat pants are welcome.

Rehearsal Etiquette:

Focus and engagement is paramount to maintaining a professional/creative working environment. Therefore, unless a performer is on an extended break from a scene, smartphones, iPads, laptops, etc. are not to be used.

Recording protocol:

Rehearsals are safe places to experiment, make bold choices, and create expressive theatre with your colleagues. The prospect of images or video recordings of these rehearsals being archived or posted on social media is counterproductive and not allowed.

- Once the piece is ready for public performance, pictures and video will be allowed but ONLY with the permission of everyone in the scene.

* Some scenes will be recorded as a teaching tool but only shown in class.

Academic Honesty

At the University of Florida every student signed the following statement: "I understand that the University of Florida expects its students to be honest in all their academic work. I agree to adhere to this commitment to academic honesty and understand that my failure to comply with this commitment may result in disciplinary action up to and including expulsion for the University." The instructor of this course fully endorses this statement and will not tolerate academic dishonesty. Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing is subject to an automatic E and further disciplinary action. All violations of academic honesty will be referred to the Dean of Students Office for disciplinary action without exception. <http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/honorcodes/conductcode.php>

If you are repeating this course at UF, please be aware that turning in any part of any written assignment that you submitted for this course in the past also constitutes academic misconduct. See "Scope and Violations" under the Honor Code above.
