TPA4520, Sect TPAA (29923): THEATRICAL PRODUCING:
DEVELOPMENTS & TRENDS
MASTER CLASS SPRING 2022
Thursdays, Periods 3-5 (9:35-12:35)

3 Credit Hours

Location: G013 Stephen Root Studio

Instructors: Miles Wilkin and Lisa Dozier King

Email: mileswilkin@ufl.edu

Office Hours: After class each week

Course Description: An examination of commercial theatrical producing, focusing on current developments and trends on Broadway, Off-Broadway, Regional Theatre and in Broadway touring. Analysis of case studies featuring guest speakers from leadership positions in Broadway management, production, and artistic roles. Participation in a field study of a national touring production.

Course Objectives: By the end of this course, students will have developed a preliminary understanding of the organization, process and roles in commercial theatre production. Students will develop an understanding of specific organizations, strategies and challenges associated with recent commercial theatre productions. Students will gain a greater understanding of employment opportunities while developing their postgraduate theatre career path.

Attendance Policy: Regular and punctual class attendance is essential. No assigned work is excused because of an absence, no matter what the cause. Records of class attendance will be kept. If it becomes necessary for a student to miss a class for any reason, the instructor must be contacted directly via email or phone prior to class time.
One unexcused absence is permissible. Each unexcused absence beyond the first will result in a 50% reduction in your participation/attendance grade. Three late arrivals or early exits will equal one unexcused absence.

Please note: If you make 0 points in participation/attendance, you may fail the course, regardless of actual total points.

Only those absences deemed excused according to UF policy will be exempted from this policy. Appropriate documentation is required for excused absences. Absences related to university-sponsored events must be discussed with the instructor prior to the date that will be missed. The full UF policy on absences, including religious holidays, illness policy, and the 12-day rule, may be found at: https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/

If absent, it is your responsibility to obtain information about missed course content. If an assignment is missed due to an excused absence, the assignment will be due by the next class period following the excused absence. Exams must be made up within one week following the excused absence.

Laptops and cell phones are strictly prohibited from class unless another arrangement has been made in advance with instructors pertaining to learning needs.

Email Notification and Policy: Only the official UF student email address will be used for course communication. It is the student’s responsibility to check UF email on a regular basis. All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, threaded discussions and chats. If the instructor deems any of them to be inappropriate or offensive, they will be forwarded to the Dean of the College of the Arts and appropriate action will be taken, not excluding expulsion from the course.
Grading:

20 % Class Participation & Interaction with Guest Lecturers

The success of this course depends on active participation and discussions. It is imperative, therefore, that you attend class promptly, have read the assigned material, and express your analysis of this material in class. As an active contributor to a collaborative art form such as theatre, you must be willing to share your views with clarity, confidence, and consideration of others.

The following actions contribute positively to your participation grade (see rubric under “Grading Scale” for assessment of participation)

- Attendance and promptness
- Demonstrated completion of assigned readings and activities
- Comments and questions that convey reflection on course content
- Demonstrated engagement with large and small group discussions
- Respect for the opinions held by others

50% Midterm & Final Exams (25% each = 50% total)

20% Student Project Paper Comparing Two Productions Presented by Lecturers

All written assignments should be formatted in MLA style, 12-point Times New Roman font, double-spaced with 1-inch margins and pages numbered. Unless otherwise specified, all written assignments are due at the beginning of the class period on the date listed on the course schedule. Submission of late assignments without penalty requires a valid and documented reason, such as an excused absence. Otherwise, 10% of the total possible points for the assignment will be deducted for each school day that assignment is late (holidays and weekends excepted).
10% Participation in Class Field Trip

The class will travel to Orlando on Saturday, February 26 for a performance of Frozen and to meet with its producing team. There are no additional student costs for this trip. Transportation and food will be provided. Students must report to the classroom 30 minutes prior to the call time.

Student Honor Code: Adoption and General Principles

Preamble: In adopting this Honor Code, the students of the University of Florida recognize that academic honesty and integrity are fundamental values of the University community. Students who enroll at the University commit to holding themselves and their peers to the high standard of honor required by the Honor Code. Any individual who becomes aware of a violation of the Honor Code is bound by honor to take corrective action. Student and faculty support are crucial to the success of the Honor Code. The quality of a University of Florida education is dependent upon the community acceptance and enforcement of the Honor Code.

The Honor Pledge:

We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code.

On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied:

"On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment."

Online Course Evaluations:

“Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through (Links to an external site.)the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via https://ufl.bluera.com/ ufl/. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/.”
Course Schedule/Syllabus: This syllabus represents current plans and objectives. As the course proceeds through the semester, those plans may need to change to enhance the class learning opportunity. Such changes are not unusual and should be expected. A list of topics and activities will be posted on Canvas. Consult this course site regularly during the term for updates and announcements.

Writing Resources:

- The UF Writing Studio is committed to helping University of Florida students meet their academic and professional goals by becoming better writers. The Writing Studio is staffed by consultants with extensive writing backgrounds. Most have graduate degrees, and many teach in the University Writing Program or English Department. Visit the Writing Studio online at https://writing.ufl.edu/writing-studio/ or in 2215 Turlington Hall, (352) 846-1138, for one-on-one consultations and workshops.

Counseling and Wellness Center:

Contact information for the Counseling and Wellness Center: https://counseling.ufl.edu/, 392-1575

University Police Department:

392-1111 or 9-1-1- for emergencies; http://www.police.ufl.edu/

Library Support:

To receive assistance with using the libraries for finding resources, consult [http://cms uflib ufl edu ask](http://cms uflib ufl edu ask)
Regarding Students with Disabilities:

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/ (Links to an external site.)) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

Class Recordings:

Our class sessions may be audio visually recorded for students in the class to refer back and for enrolled students who are unable to attend live. Students who participate with their camera engaged or utilize a profile image are agreeing to have their video or image recorded. If you are unwilling to consent to have your profile or video image recorded, be sure to keep your camera off and do not use a profile image.

Likewise, students who un-mute during class and participate orally are agreeing to have their voices recorded. If you are not willing to consent to have your voice recorded during class, you will need to keep your mute button activated and communicate exclusively using the "chat" feature, which allows students to type questions and comments live. The chat will not be recorded or shared. As in all courses, unauthorized recording and unauthorized sharing of recorded materials is prohibited.
