Accommodation

Santurcia Hostel (santurciahostel.com)

Located in the heart of Santurce's Art District in San Juan, this modern hostel has a bohemian flair that welcomes guests from all around the world looking for a key location in the gastronomic, artistic, and nightlife epicenter of Santurce. A great place to stay, network, hangout, enjoy a urban rooftop view and experience the local lifestyle first hand.

Program

During this intensive program, participants will work closely with the Puerto Rican theatre company Y No Había Luz and nonprofit organization Arte y Maña to discover how creativity can be a healing tool in communities. Participants will take an inside look at the creative processes that both companies use and experience practical aspects of art and theatre-making in community settings.

Participants in this program will:

- Develop artistic skills that become tools for social and emotional well-being.
- Identify and practice aspects of theatre, dance and the visual arts that are effective catalysts for community healing.
- Engage in cultural exchange through art-making and fellowship.
