COURSE DESCRIPTION
Continuation of TPP 4287 with an emphasis Speech training for the actor. Students study speech anatomy and physiology and move to a very full overview of phonetics based on a linguistic model and apply this knowledge to acting.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- To free and develop your voice and body so that they may be transparent to your thoughts and impulses as an actor.
- To improve the clarity, dexterity, and expressiveness of your speech.
- To increase physical awareness so that the voice and body is not inhibited by tension.
- To develop your ability to discern elements of a dialect or accent, including sound substitutions, placement and musicality.
- To use the International Phonetic Alphabet to identify and transcribe dialects/accents.
- To research, present, and apply in performance culturally relevant information that may inform a character’s dialect or accent.
- To score, rehearse and perform texts in an accent or dialect.
- To connect the language and gesture of a dialect/accent with your body, thoughts and feelings.
- To develop a connection between a heightened text, your artistic impulse and physical action.
- To integrate the speech, vocal and physical work with your acting through personalization, playable actions, objectives, obstacles, high stakes and relationship.

COURSE OUTCOMES

- Continue to Eliminate old habits that interfere with your free flow of sound
- Strengthen and Develop your range and resonance
- Demonstrate knowledge of speech anatomy
- Aurally distinguish & demonstrate accent phonemes
- Demonstrate transcription competency when using the International Phonetic Alphabet
- To develop a process of accent and dialect acquisition
- Demonstrate skills of how to rehabilitate your voice when fatigued or damaged
- Demonstrate vocal variety and expressiveness through: volume and emphasis, rhythm and speed, phrasing and pausing, inflection and range

COURSE OVERVIEW
This term we will continue to practice the Linklater Progression of Voice exercises. The desire is to restore the connection of language to the body by re-circuiting of sensory experiences to oral communication. Our goal as an actor is to be ultra-verbal: to simultaneously experience language in tactile, auditory and imagistic ways; indeed, to savor the tastes and smells of language. Students learn speech actions using the Knight Thompson Speechwork and learn several accents and dialects. We will study vocal anatomy and physiology and move to a very full overview of phonetics based on a much more linguistic model than is usually taught in speech courses. The emphasis is on the physical awareness and experience of sound distinction and the ability to discern subtle changes in vocal articulated sound using sounds that are found in many languages other than English. Through this process, we continue to learn the International Phonetic Alphabet (IPA) and develop phonetic transcription skills for future dialect study and script notation. Some of these accents could include a “So Called” General/Neutral American, Appalachian, Deep South, RP, Cockney, Multicultural London English, Brooklynese, and New Jersey. Students will be responsible to work in small groups to learn a Nigerian or Russian or French accent, as well as perform a solo accent at the end of the term.

Solo Accent Presentation
You will have 15 minutes to introduce the accent to your classmates. Do you need to use the accent while you teach? Yes.
• Define or contextualize the accent. Who are the people who speak it? As described above this may include social, geographical, political, stereotypes, historical, and/or cultural attributes, or stereotypes.
• Play 2 audio or video clips (not too long please). Have whatever AV components you need set up beforehand.
• Identify Prosody or additional characteristics
• Teach the Oral Posture
• Teach two to three major Pronunciation characteristics.

The Performance: A monologue 1 ½ to 2 minutes
• Memorized, fully researched, owned and acted.
• You will also provide a copy of the monologue with all the sound changes notated and transcribed phonetically.

GRADING
Class Participation/Professionalism 20% (punctuality, communication, attitude)
Conceptual Information 45% (homework, quizzes, blogs, papers)
Midterm 15% (level of progress in voice skills, application of acting skills, and accent speech skills)
Final Performance 20% (level of progress in voice skills, application of acting skills, accent speech skills)

Class Participation and Professionalism
20% of your grade for this class is based on your participation and Professionalism in discussion and the physical explorations.

Participating in the physical component of the class, means having a positive and rigorous attitude with exploring new work. In other words, resistance to change or negative attitudes towards the work or feedback from the instructor is not participating. It means arriving early, suited up, and ready to move right when class starts.

Participating in discussion does not necessarily mean talking a lot or showing everyone else that you know or have studied a lot. ‘Good discussion’ participation involves trying to build on, and synthesize, the physical experience that has transpired. It also involves showing, respect and appreciation for others’ comments and contributions and learning how to “agree to disagree”.

If you find yourself talking a lot in the feedback sessions, some of the most helpful things you can do are allow for a quiet interlude. Learning to live with unanswered questions is a valuable skill as an actor/artist.

Skills that define a Professional Attitude are:
  - Demonstrate empathy, integrity, honesty, good interpersonal skills, curiosity, courage, and desire for change.
  - Ability to adapt to a working environment that is both rigorous and demanding.
- Ability to show flexibility to changes.
- Ability to function in the face of uncertainties questions and stresses, which are inherent in the training and artistic process, as well as the profession.
- Ability and willingness to respond physically to appropriate verbal and tactile cues given by their teachers.

Mistakes to Avoid:
- Refusing to Ask for Help
- Insubordination to your Authority Figure
- Not Being Able to Handle Feedback
- Gossiping
- Being Afraid to Make Mistakes
- Not Admitting You Made a Mistake
- Having a Bad Attitude
- Not Learning from Your Classmates
- Not Being Prepared
- Comparing your Artistic Journey to Other’s Journey’s

Email Policy
Electronic mail or "email" is considered an official method for communication because it delivers information in a convenient, timely, cost effective and environmentally aware manner. Students are expected to check their official Illinois email on a frequent and consistent basis in order to remain informed of university-related communications. The university recommends checking email daily. Students are responsible for the consequences of not reading, in a timely fashion, university-related communications sent to their official student email account. This policy ensures that all students have access to this important form of communication. It ensures students can be reached through a standardized channel by faculty and other staff of the university as needed.

Attendance Policies:
Only a University sanctioned absence or medical absence will be excused (a note from your physician or school nurse).

No absences of any kind will excuse you from class responsibilities. You, the student, will be held accountable for keeping up with class assignments and projects.

3 unexcused absences = a single letter grade reduction
4 unexcused absences = a two letter grade reduction
6 unexcused absences = a three letter grade reduction

Tardiness:
Tardiness is disruptive to a class of this nature and will not be tolerated. Any tardiness will be recorded along with attendance. Attendance will be taken promptly at the start of class. If you enter the room after the role-call has been completed, you will be considered tardy. If you enter the room anytime after 20 minutes of the official start of the class you will be marked absent for that class day.

2 tardies = 1 absence

UF Policies:

University Policy on Accommodating Students with Disabilities (Required): “Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.”

University Policy on Academic Conduct: UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code (http://www.dso.ufl.edu/scrr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Class Demeanor or Netiquette: All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, threaded discussions and chats. [Describe what is expected and what will occur as a result of improper behavior See Sample Netiquette Document]
