Studio Research |

Research and Practice Agreement |
The development and presentation of finished work is 40% of your final grade. The research and practice agreement is a living document intended to identify the goals and direction for your work during the semester. This document is a foundation for my advisorship, and grading, but it should not impede your experimentation, discovery, or growth. As such, follow your work closer than the agreement. If a major shift or change is needed, schedule a time during my weekly office hours to discuss a plan moving forward. You will be expected to submit a revised agreement.

The agreement will be used as a grading standard in conjunction with the general rubric. A portfolio documenting finished work, a written statement will be submitted for midterm and final grading.

Graduate Student Expectations |
I expect the following of graduate students in the studio arts.

- Be prolific in your studio. Show up daily and work hard.
- Experiment without fear of failure.
- Find value in failure, apply it, move on.
- Push beyond what you already know and do.
- Be interesting.
- Research consistently and apply it to your studio practice.
- Hold yourself accountable to a higher standard than your peers or faculty.

Studio Visits |
We will have 3 studio visits (30 min/each) over the course of the semester. This is not a critique. I expect to see consistent and apparent progress in the development of your work, research, and concepts over the course of these visits. Be prepared for me to look at and consider anything in your studio as being related to the growth of you and your work.

Other Seminars |
Projects made for this class may NOT be submitted to any other class for credit unless both faculty have given prior approval. Failure to follow this rule will be considered academic dishonesty. You are expected to disclose your other seminars for the semester in the research and practice agreement.

Critique |
Various formats and strategies will be presented as a resource page on Canvas prior to critiques. As an MFA candidate I expect you to organize and facilitate a critique that is generative for you and your practice through critical assessment of your artwork and associated research. A portfolio and a statement regarding the work will be submitted one week prior to your critique.

Midterm Critique |
Group critique format. At least one finished work will be displayed in a critique space, in progress works should be submitted through photo or video documentation prior to the critique in portfolio.

Final Critique |
Individual critique of finished works made for this seminar. You may invite one guest critic with approval. This can include members of your committee or other UF faculty.
Grading Policy |

Your final grade is determined by the total points earned out of 1000 possible points. A general course rubric is available above and on Canvas under the Course Information module.

Ceramics Area Policy

Studio Regulations
All students are expected to follow the studio regulations as listed in Welcome to UF Ceramics and the COVID Ceramics Area Procedures. Please pay special attention to these regulations during the pandemic as it can impact someone’s health and safety, including your own.

· If a student does not actively use his/her/their assigned studio space outside of class time, it will be re-assigned. · Remove all work and personal equipment and supplies from shared studio spaces and kiln areas or it will be considered abandoned.

· Please work in a team spirit when it comes to cleaning public workspace such as the glaze and kiln rooms. Everyone using the space will appreciate any added effort on your part. If affects attitudes and aids in the safe use of the facility.

· Do not leave your work on community spaces. Please do not store anything on the floor.

Etiquette
Netiquette, short for network etiquette, is the set of rules and expectations governing online behavior and social interaction. The 'Core Rules of Netiquette' http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html excerpted from the book Netiquette by Virginia Shea (1994), are a set of guidelines to which all members of this course are expected to adhere. Please treat each other with respect. Online learning participants who do not adhere to the netiquette expectations may result in both personal and legal consequences. Note: The instructor reserves the right to remove any discussion postings deemed inappropriate or remove anyone from Zoom meetings conducting inappropriate behaviors or language.

the first dose of the vaccine somewhere off-campus and/or outside of Gainesville can still receive their second dose on campus.

You are expected to wear approved face coverings at all times during class and within buildings even if you are vaccinated. Please continue to follow healthy habits, including best practices like frequent hand washing. Following these practices is our responsibility as Gators.

- Sanitizing supplies are available in the classroom if you wish to wipe down your desks prior to sitting down and at the end of the class.
- Hand sanitizing stations will be located in every classroom.

If you are sick, stay home and self-quarantine. Please visit the UF Health Screen, Test & Protect

All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor. A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session. Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student

A detailed list of disruptive conduct may be found at: http://www.aa.ufl.edu/aa/Rules/1008.htm. Be advised that a student can and will be dismissed from class if he/she engages in disruptive behavior.

Academic Honesty |
UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (sccr.dso.ufl.edu/process/student-conduct-code/) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.
University Policy for Religious Holidays

The Board of Regents and state law govern university policy regarding observance of religious holidays: Students, upon prior notification of their instructors, shall be excused from class or other scheduled academic activity to observe a religious holy day of their faith. Students shall be permitted a reasonable amount of time to make up the material or activities covered in their absence. Students shall not be penalized due to absence from class or other scheduled academic activity because of religious observances. Further, a student who is to be excused from class for a religious holy day is not required to provide a second party certification of the reasons for the absence.

On-line Course Evaluation

I appreciate your feedback and it is essential to the academic process. Please take a few minutes towards the end of the semester to give input. Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via ufl.blueria.com/ufl/.
