Catalog Description:
Develops technical range and performance skills through the study and production of dance repertory

Course Description
This course is to provide a rehearsal and performance experience that prepares you for the professional dance field. Dancers in my chorographic work are collaborators in original choreography or the reimagining of already existent choreography. All are expected to adapt to the physical and philosophical demands of the particular aesthetic specific to the dance. Cast members collaborate and experiment in these areas: movement invention/vocabulary, theatrical expression (may include talking, singing, manipulation of props), and performance quality. This process culminates with the performance of a dance work in either UF Dance Program performance or less formal public showing.

Grading Criteria
As the Course Description States, this class creates an environment representative of professional rehearsal and performance practices. As such, the grade is based on an overall gestalt of criteria for students to meet professional practice expectations throughout the rehearsal and performance timeframe. Meeting the below expectations consistently will ensure a passing grade in the course.

Attendance – 40%
“Showing up” is the foundational attribute in professional dance contexts. If one is not present, one cannot participate in creating and learning the choreography or developing the trust necessary for the needed relationships with other cast members/partners and the choreographer. Regular attendance is expected and will be recorded.

NOTE: In an ongoing global pandemic, there will be obvious challenges. DO NOT come to class if you are exhibiting symptoms of ANY contagious disease, have a severe injury, or need immediate mental health intervention or care. Nothing is worth compromising your and others’ body/mind safety. Communication is KEY: If you know you will or do miss class, please contact me immediately by e-mail, phone, or text. I will provide the class with my cell phone number.

Professionalism/participation – 40%
- Reflecting general “gameness” in the creative process by staying in embodied and verbal dialogue with choreographer and class co-hort.
- Being prompt and on time to rehearsals to warm the body, review choreography, and be physically and mentally prepared to dance.
- Conducting yourself in a professional and courteous manner which includes:
  - Limited conversation – all conversations should be related to the class/rehearsal process.
  - Working only on material that is related to the choreography (no comp assignments or other choreographers’ works).
  - Staying active and involved in the process—no lying down, sleeping, or isolating one’s self from the group/class community. If you are not feeling well, need personal space, etc., only ask—all that is needed is clear communication.
- Being present at all spacing and technical rehearsals as well as on time for call during performance week.
- Performing the choreographic work with commitment.
Discussion Posts/Journaling – 10%
Assignments and instructions will be given in class and then reiterated through the course Canvas site. Please check the site and your UF email for updates.

Final reflection – 10%
Whether in formal or less formal formatting, the reflection will have clear prompts and parameters that will help you respond to your experience in this course via writing or another chosen mode of communication/archiving.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:
• To expand the dancer’s expressive and qualitative range of movement and performance.
• To develop performance qualities which include: musicality, dynamics, spatial clarity, technical specificity, etc.
• To foster the student’s capacity to adapt to varying choreographers’ approaches to the creative process.
• To provide the student with experiences that strengthen the sense of shared responsibility within a pre-professional creative environment.
• To transfer skills being learned in technique class to a rehearsal context.
• To gain experience and develop an understanding of how to work in an ensemble.
• To empower the person/dancer/thinker/choreographer in each student.

DRESS POLICY:
Attire in class should be neat, clean and allow for clear execution and observation of alignment and movement. Hair should be secured to allow for full and vigorous moving. Please do not wear watches or jewelry that might be harmful or inhibit movement.

COURSE POLICIES

SoTD Dance Attendance:
Dance Technique Class Attendance Guide
➢ Mindful participation in each class meeting is the only way to meet the objectives of this course.
➢ Attendance is considered mandatory
➢ In the case of extended health issues, refer to the Injury and Illness Policy in the updated SoTD Handbook

Dance Area Attendance Policy—Studio Courses
Students are expected to participate in in-person instruction. If a student is uncomfortable attending in-person, the student should elect courses that are delivered online only and plan to take the hybrid or face-to-face course in a future semester. Students are expected to be in attendance daily and to be on time.

For classes that meet two times a week:
Students can take 2 absences with no penalty; no documentation is required for the first 2 absences as they are automatically excused. If the third absence is unexcused, it will result in 5% deduction from the final grade. Excused or unexcused, on the third absence, a meeting is required with the instructor and/or area faculty to assess the student’s continued participation in the course. If the fourth absence and all subsequent absences are unexcused, each will result in an additional 5% deduction from the final grade. Opportunities to make up missed material for unexcused absences is up to the instructor’s discretion and will be made available through virtual classes or online assignments.
• Any absence from class for the following reasons must be supported by official acceptable documentation to avoid a grade penalty: illness—doctor’s note must be on official letterhead with address and phone number, noting the date and time of visit and diagnosis verifying that an absence from class is warranted, doctor name and signature
• Serious family emergencies
• Special curricular requirements (e.g., judging trips, field trips, professional conferences)
• Military obligation
• Severe weather conditions
• Participation in official university activities such as music performances, athletic competition or debate
• Court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena)

To help organize accommodations, students should inform the instructor by the end of the second week of classes of religious observances of their faith that will conflict with class attendance this semester.
UF Absence Policy

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies, as follows:

Source: https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/

- Students are responsible for satisfying all academic objectives as defined by the instructor. Absences count from the first class meeting.
- In general, acceptable reasons for absence from or failure to participate in class include illness, serious family emergencies, special curricular requirements (e.g., judging trips, field trips, professional conferences), military obligation, severe weather conditions, religious holidays and participation in official university activities such as music performances, athletic competition or debate. Absences from class for court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena) must be excused. Other reasons also may be approved.
- You cannot participate in classes unless you are registered officially or approved to audit with evidence of having paid audit fees. The Office of the University Registrar provides official class rolls to Instructors.
- If you do not participate in at least one of the first two class meetings of a course or laboratory in which you are registered, and you have not contacted the department to indicate your intent, you can be dropped from the course. You must not assume that you will be dropped, however.
- The university recognizes the right of the individual professor to make attendance mandatory. After due warning, professors can prohibit further attendance and subsequently assign a failing grade for excessive absences.

Student on-line evaluation process

General Information

Student Injury and Illness Policy:
The Dance Area of SoTD believes that dance student's physical and mental well-being is paramount to success in all arenas of their dance training, from class to the stage. In the case of injury, fostering a productive and holistic response ensures a speedy and effective recovery.

FIRST: Please contact the Dance Wellness Clinic through the Canvas site. The protocol for accessing appointments is here: https://ufl.instructure.com/courses/414412/discussion_topics/2671475
Also: email Kirsten kcunha@ufl.edu for assistance

If the dance student becomes ill or injured to the degree that they cannot attend and participate in dance classes, SoTD sponsored rehearsals, or performances, the 5 steps of the dance student injury and illness policy are to be followed:
1. The student is required to see a health care professional immediately.
2. If the illness or injury prevents the student from participation in dance class, rehearsal, or performance, the student is to request documentation from the health care professional that explicitly projects the duration of the injury, and/or the amount and type of activity recommended for the welfare of the student.
3. Following the appointment with the health care professional, the student is required to bring medical recommendations and related documentation to the attention of his or her instructor(s), choreographer(s), or director(s) as the basis for discussion.

4. Unless otherwise medically advised, the student is prohibited from active participation in all related UFdance activities, classes, events, performances, etc. The student may not personally select one activity as having a higher priority over another. The student is not to dance in any events, activities, performances or rehearsals if the student is not in dance class. If the infirmity culminates in a medical withdrawal, this is also a withdrawal from all performance related activities.

5. The student is never allowed to sacrifice classroom participation for the demands of a performance. The student will not be allowed to participate in a performance if they miss dance class due to an injury. The student is expected to follow the student injury and illness policy even if performances take place beyond the scope of SoTD, as with another UF, professional, or community performing group, etc.

Continuing Dance Program COVID protocols:

COVID-19 Precautions

- All people inside of UF facilities/SoTD are expected to wear masks in community spaces in buildings, including common areas in our office suites, when we are not in our individual offices or workspaces, even if you are vaccinated.
- With the highly contagious Omicron variant proliferating, personal purchase of KN95 or N95 masks are recommended. Surgical masks will still be provided but along with cloth masks are not as effective in reducing the spread of Omicron.
- Your ONE.UF account must show a “Cleared for Campus” status in order to attend in-person. I will check my roster before each class meeting.
- Some synchronous online options may remain with announcements regarding applicable dates (simultaneously on Zoom and in person). Unless otherwise specified, all courses are considered IN PERSON with attendance taken.

Students, Faculty, and Staff are trusted to foster healthy SoTD class and creative environments through adherence to the following guidelines:

- If you are not vaccinated, get vaccinated. If you are vaccinated, get the booster. UF Provost's office has emailed the campus with available/ongoing resources.
- Students are welcome to use hand sanitizer or wash hands at the top of each class, rehearsal or production activity in shared spaces.
- Stay home and seek medical help for COVID-19 symptoms or exposure (persistent cough, fever 100.4+, new loss of taste or smell, muscle pain/headaches, shortness of breath, sore throat, chills, diarrhea, or feeling generally ill). The culture of hiding illness or the "show must go on" mentality must be avoided.
- Wipes and sanitation supplies will be available to sanitize individual props, costumes, chairs, ballet barres, music stands, tables, individual projects etc.
- Dispose of personal trash in appropriate bags/containers.
