Course Syllabus

Course Description:

This course is a practical experience working in the scenic studio to produce the various productions for the School of Theatre and Dance. Students will receive both an insight into the work that goes into a production and act as the primary workforce in construction and demolition. Along with the assigned lab hours, students will be required to attend one strike.

Required material:

- Clothing that is appropriate for work
 - These clothes may get dirty or damaged
- Long pants
- Closed toed shoes

Additional useful, but not required, material (these are provided by the shop, but if you want your own, they're pretty handy:

- 25' tape measure
- Safety Glasses, Hard Hat, and Hearing Protection

Attendance Policies:

You will be asked to fill out your worked hours at the end of each work period to help me track the various projects we will be working on.

You will be allotted one unexcused absence, after that, each unexcused absence will cost your grade 5 points.

Entry to the shop will be denied for improper attire, thus being unprepared for the practicum will count as a tardy or absence

Meetings and office hours:

- I will be available for office hours from 10AM-12PM on Mondays and Wednesdays. If I am not actually in the office at those times, check in the shop or on the stages. Additionally, you can schedule an appointment with me at my Calendly link:

<https://calendly.com/ebenalguire>

Communications:

- Email and Canvas will be the primary means for communicating with the class as a whole
 - Events such as class cancellation will be sent as soon as possible when a cancellation is decided
- I also use Teams as a means for short and simple communication, but nothing important will be sent to the class via Teams

Grading:

Statement on Classroom Recording

- Students may record lectures, discussions, or activities, but recordings may only be used for the individual student's own private use
- Scene shop and stage work may be recorded in photographs or video by the department as a teaching or marketing tool

Course Evaluations

- Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>."

UF Honor Pledge

- UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Conduct Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. UF Conduct Code link: <https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/process/student-conduct-code/>.
