MONDAY/WEDNESDAY/FRIDAY* 10:40AM -12:35PM
Fall 2021

Instructor: Catron Booker

Office Hours: 9:00-11:00am TUESDAY & THURSDAY (Location TBD, also available via ZOOM and by appt.)

Email: bookerc@arts.ufl.edu

Course Description:

Acting One is an introduction to the craft of acting and the foundation for all performance majors and students seeking entrance into the program. The course consists of group exercises to develop physical awareness, concentration, imagination and trust. Basic physical, vocal and analytical concepts; methods; vocabulary; and discipline required of the beginning actor will also be explored. Students will develop their own creative process through monologues, scene work, and exercises in observation and awareness.

Course Objective:

- A) To establish a common vocabulary that serves as a foundation for the acting process.
- B) To increase observational skills and develop self-awareness through exercise and improvisation.
- C) To apply the methods and techniques of the actor's process and apply these methods and techniques of acting to one's own work through exercises and scene work.
- D) To develop in the student an understanding of the discipline of the art and to refine concentration skills necessary within that discipline.
- E) To introduce the student to the basic methods of relaxation as well as physical and vocal freedom and control.
- F) To develop the ability to work as a supportive, courageous, and accountable member of an ensemble through improving discipline, building trust, and strengthening communication skills.
- G) To demonstrate a fundamental understanding of the building blocks of working on a monologue and a scene

Required Text:

Respect for Acting. Hagen, Uta. (Wiley, 1973, ISBN: 0-02-547390-5)

Recommended Reading:

A Challenge for the Actor by Uta Hagen (Excerpts from this text will be provided.)

Published plays and reference materials, both of which may be obtained from the campus libraries, will be utilized by the student in class. Additional handouts may be distributed as well.

Course Content:

Through the use of exercises, both structured and unstructured, the student will explore the basic skills of acting which include: a repertoire of relaxation and warm-up exercises from which to build upon for use in the study of acting, and the development of self-awareness, imagination, the mechanics of staging, character-process, and foundational work in script analysis.

Students will memorize the general vocabulary of acting through the use of the addendum to the syllabus and in-class exercises and explorations. A comprehensive, written exam will be given at the end of the semester.

Execution of the basic acting skills will be demonstrated by the student in the form of in-class performances of monologues and in scene work with partners. Students are expected to be fully memorized for these performances, and will be expected to submit written analysis for each performance, the content of which will vary according to the student's development of skills.

Diversity, Inclusion and Teaching Practice:

As your instructor of Acting I, I will work to advocate and show commitment and transparency. I will strive to construct an open and democratic environment for us to grow as a community. I acknowledge differences. And for this reason, I encourage open discussions with no judgement in which I aim to promote understanding, empathy, critical thinking and creativity. You are important to me. I promise to respect you as a person and celebrate your artistic and intellectual abilities. As a teacher, I am committed to teaching and also see this process as one of collaboration. I hope to inspire, foster innovation, curiosity, and create a rigorously creative community together.

It is my intent to present materials and activities that are respectful of diversity: gender identity, sexuality, (dis)ability, age, socioeconomic status, ethnicity, race, nationality, religion, and culture. Your suggestions are encouraged and appreciated.

I would also like to acknowledge that what we are experiencing as a community is a challenging time. And I value our emotions around these sometimes difficult and constantly changing circumstances that we face. Starting from the global pandemic to the acts of violence based on racial, ethnic, gender, and socioeconomic discrimination makes us vulnerable and angry. All are valid emotions considering the severity of the situation. The pressure of being present, checking emails, Zooming in, and maintaining academic rigor during these uncertain times can feel redundant. I can share my practice around it and what I am learning from my mentors on an ongoing basis. I encourage you to slow down and be generous to yourself.

I look forward to practicing this together this semester amidst all the chaos and ambiguity. Let us be each other's support system, work together to transmit knowledge—be kind to each other, and keep the ball rolling—focus on your tasks and yourself. As a classroom, we are an ensemble, we are a community and I look forward to facilitating a collective experience of creative growth, leadership development and artistic excellence.

Attendance at UF Theatre Productions:

Reaction Paper:

Reaction Paper #1 Due: (Either Staged Reading Production) Reaction Paper #2 Due:

Students are required to see all UF main stage shows and be prepared to discuss them in class. For 2 productions, you will submit a 2-page (double-spaced, 1 inch margin, name and title of production in page header) and verbally share commentary in class.

Grading:

Students may have varying degrees of “talent” and experience in acting. Therefore, students will not be graded solely on the basis of the skills and talents they bring to the class. Consideration will be given to the student’s improvement and effort that are demonstrated.

Participation is a key factor in grading. Criteria for this grade include attentiveness, participation in and/or leadership of exercises, willingness to participate in class discussions, etc... in general, the TIME, EFFORT, and COMMITMENT the student displays toward this class.

Obviously, assignments must be complete in order to receive complete points. Each assignment will be awarded a specific point value. Points will be tallied at the end of the semester to determine the student’s final grade.

300-270	A	225-239	C+	180-194	D
255-269	B+	210-224	C	193 and below	E

Monologue	25 pts
Scene #1	25 pts
Vocabulary/Terminology Exam	30 pts

Assignments Descriptions:

In this class you will complete 1 MONOLOGUE and 2 SCENES.

In addition the following assignments are also required:

"Acting/Self Analysis" Paper: Due Monday, January 24

Your thoughts regarding what you hope to take away from this class.

What are your current perceptions, thoughts/feelings on the term “Acting?” Why do I choose Acting?

Please take time to reflect on your previous experiences with the craft, inspirations, challenges, triumphs, and failures.

Word requirement: 1000 word minimum requirement (2 pages minimum) Papers must be typed and stapled.

Journals: J#1: Wed, 1/19 J#2: Wed, 2/9 J#3: Wed, 2/23 J4# Wed 3/2 : J#5: Wed, 3/16

Journals are a great habit and also strengthen your writing skills. You will be required to submit your journal reflections which should be at least 1 page written (or typed) per entry. You will have at least 5 pages by the end of the course. Use your journals in the way that best supports your process.

Reaction Papers: #1: Due Monday, April 18 (Marisol) and #2: Due April 4 (Either Staged Reading)

This paper should not be a summary, nor should it be a personal evaluation of what you enjoyed, etc. This paper is a formal analysis of the various acting techniques that you observed in the play. How do various characters achieve and/or fail in accomplishing their objectives? How do you see characters evolving over the course of the play? What are your takeaways for your own process? (2 pages typed per paper)

Late Assignment Policy:

1. Late assignments will not be accepted. I know this is a tough pill to swallow. Professional actors who show up late get fired. Keep track of due dates. Keep the lines of communication open if you are having a challenge.
2. You are allowed one unexcused absence. However... ** THERE ARE NO MAKE UP DAYS FOR WORKSHOPS OR PERFORMANCE DAYS** In other words, you cannot elect to take your unexcused absence on your assigned workshop or performance day. That is wholly unfair to your scene partner. Only in extreme cases will scenes be rescheduled (see attendance policy).

Attendance Policy:

Any absence from class for the following reasons must be supported by official acceptable documentation to avoid a grade penalty:

- Illness—doctor's note must be on official letterhead with address and phone number, noting the date and time of visit and diagnosis verifying that an absence from class is warranted, doctor name and signature
- Serious family emergencies
- Special curricular requirements (e.g., judging trips, field trips, professional conferences)
- Military obligation
- Severe weather conditions
- Participation in official university activities such as music performances, athletic competition or debate
- Court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena)

To help organize accommodations, students should inform the instructor by the end of the second week of classes of religious observances of their faith that will conflict with class attendance this semester.

Any student that acquires 3 absences (either excused or unexcused) will be required to meet with this course's instructor and/or area faculty to discuss the student's continued participation in the course. For Majors: Failure to attend this meeting will result in Artistic Probation.

Due to the participatory nature of the course that includes in-class collaboration along with partner and ensemble work, if a student acquires more than 2 unexcused absences, the student may be prohibited from participation in partner/group exercises which will affect the student's final grade.

*NOTE: Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at: catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/

Additional Course Fees:

$50.00 *included in your course payment

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities:

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center. Click here to get started with the Disability Resource

Center. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

COVID Related Practices:

In response to COVID-19, the following practices are in place to maintain your learning environment, to enhance the safety of our in-classroom interactions, and to further the health and safety of ourselves, our neighbors, and our loved ones.

- If you are not vaccinated, get vaccinated. Vaccines are readily available at no cost and have been demonstrated to be safe and effective against the COVID-19 virus. Visit this link for details on where to get your shot, including options that do not require an appointment: <https://coronavirus.ufhealth.org/vaccinations/vaccine-availability/>. Students who receive the first dose of the vaccine somewhere off-campus and/or outside of Gainesville can still receive their second dose on campus.
- You are expected to wear approved face coverings at all times during class and within buildings even if you are vaccinated. Please continue to follow healthy habits, including best practices like frequent hand washing. Following these practices is our responsibility as Gators.
  - Sanitizing supplies are available in the classroom if you wish to wipe down your desks prior to sitting down and at the end of the class.
  - Hand sanitizing stations will be located in every classroom.
- If you are sick, stay home and self-quarantine. Please visit the UF Health Screen, Test & Protect website about next steps, retake the questionnaire and schedule your test for no sooner than 24 hours after your symptoms began. Please call your primary care provider if you are ill and need immediate care or the UF Student Health Care Center at 352-392-1161 (or email covid@shcc.ufl.edu) to be evaluated for testing and to receive further instructions about returning to campus. UF Health Screen, Test & Protect offers guidance when you are sick, have been exposed to someone who has tested positive or have tested positive yourself. Visit the UF Health Screen, Test & Protect website for more information.
  - Course materials will be provided to you with an excused absence, and you will be given a reasonable amount of time to make up work.
  - If you are withheld from campus by the Department of Health through Screen, Test & Protect you are not permitted to use any on campus facilities. Students attempting to attend campus activities when withheld from campus will be referred to the Dean of Students Office.

Privacy Statement Related to the Online Component of this Course:

Our class sessions may be audio visually recorded for students in the class to refer back and for enrolled students who are unable to attend live. Students who participate with their camera engaged or utilize a profile image are agreeing to have their video or image recorded. If you are unwilling to consent to have your profile or video image recorded, be sure to keep your camera off and do not use a profile image.

Likewise, students who un-mute during class and participate orally are agreeing to have their voices recorded. If you are not willing to consent to have your voice recorded during class, you will need to keep your mute button activated and communicate exclusively using the "chat" feature, which allows students to type questions and comments live. The chat will not be recorded or shared. As in all courses, unauthorized recording and unauthorized sharing of recorded materials is prohibited.

RECORDING:

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A "class lecture" is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.

Final Business:

Acting is ACTION. Acting is not about attitude, or being clever. It's not about your ability to conjure up or manufacture a feeling or emotion. Acting is about the TASK. To get forgiveness, to get them to love you, etc., etc., etc. Be deliberate. Be direct. Be fearless. Learning how to do the aforementioned is the function of this class.
