Grading: Specific criteria for grading include adherence to the assignment parameters, research/studio practice, concept development, formal resolution, and craft/presentation. Late projects will not be accepted.

Project Evaluation:

A Extremely well presented exceptional work. Exceptional work demonstrates a full realization of the ideas put forth in assignment, and more. Discussing points in the work of you and your peers is expected during the critique sessions. Excellent attendance and no lateness. Enthusiasm and focus during the in-class work time; coming to class ready to work.

B Well presented very good work. Very good work demonstrates a sound and competent realization of the ideas put forth in each assignment. Participation in critique, attendance, and enthusiasm apply throughout.

C Well-presented, average work. Average work demonstrates a fairly good attempt at grasping the expectations of each given assignment, and the breakdown of the particular specifics, (material, handling, idea, etc., whatever has been discussed prior to assignment). This work lacks a competent, comprehensive understanding mentioned in 'B' above. Participation in critique, attendance, and enthusiasm are expected, as they would be in the earning of any letter grade.

D Inadequate work: Extremely poor and/or half-finished work with no care or attention to the assigned problem or presentation. In addition, when someone has missed an enormous amount of classes, (three and above) and has failed to complete assignments, or keep up to date with the studio-based syllabus.

E When someone stops coming to class and stops communicating with the instructor. This is a severe grade and is usually given in severe circumstances.
