Course Expectations

The ability to “count-sing” the melodic material, to “vowel-sing” the text along with the insertion of IPA transcriptions, word-by-word translations and poetic texts in the semester's repertoire are expected for repertoire assigned for weekly lessons. Each student will be expected to complete assignments on time.

Studio Class and Voice Recitals

Studio classes (combined and individual) are considered an integral part of voice study. Timely presence in studio class is expected. Each student should support studio peers by attending degree recitals or dress rehearsals. Please mark calendars and plan work/social obligations accordingly.

How to Learn New Repertoires

Because muscle memory is a crucial element in vocal technique, each song/aria should be learned systematically and carefully.

1. Read the text and analyze its meaning. Gather information about the poet and composer. Determine the context and musical style of the song/aria.
2. Include in your score the breath/dynamic marks and an IPA transcription.
3. Where appropriate, write in the word-by-word translation of the text.
4. Count-sing the song/aria beginning with the introduction and include the interludes. Make note of difficult intervals.
5. Chant and then sing the vowels of the words phrase by phrase. "Rhyme" the vowels to ensure accurate tuning.
6. Add the consonants while maintaining the rhythmic integrity and vowel purity of the work.
7. Memorize.
8. Perform by memory in lesson and/or studio.

Note: A work is deemed "completed" when each of the above steps has been accomplished.

Course Expectations and Assignments

Course expectations/assignments are subject to change based student's vocal health and development. Students enrolled in MVV 1411 will participate in the following plan where appropriate. Students enrolled in MVV 2421, 3431, and 4441 should use the following plan to shape weekly practice and performance goals.
