PURPOSES AND GOALS

Theoretical principles of continuo performance practice will be explored through primary sources. Using practical exercises of G.F. Handel and supporting transposition exercises by John Warriner, the student will learn the practical aspect of realizing figured bass.

GRADE DISTRIBUTION

| | | |
|---------------------------|----|-------|
| Class Preparation | -- | 60% |
| Final Realization Project | -- | 30% |
| Notebook | -- | 10% |
| | | ----- |
| | | 100% |

CLASS PREPARATION

Success in this course will be achieved by preparing weekly exercises. The assignment for each week is comprised of two components: readings and practical exercises. Complete details in the tentative course schedule below. Meeting time will be set during the first week of classes.

REALIZATION PROJECT

The culminating written project for this course will be an original, publishable, realization of a continuo part of a movement or section of a work from the Baroque period. Using the figured bass indications in the original score or manuscript, the student will present their version of a continuo part that utilizes the techniques discussed in the course. If at all possible, the work will be performed, with appropriate instrumentation. PROJECT DUE no later than Wednesday, December 7 at 5PM.

NOTEBOOK

The student will be required prepare a digital course notebook. This notebook should contain handouts, definitions, annotated bibliographies, etc. The purpose of the notebook is to serve as a resource for the future. NOTEBOOK DUE during final exam week, no later than Wednesday, December 14 at 5PM.

GRADING SCALE

Information on current UF grading policies for assigning grade points may be found here:

COURSE EVALUATION

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>.

ACCOMODATIONS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center. Click here to get started with the Disability Resource Center. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Conduct Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Click here to read the Conduct Code. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

DIGITAL STUDENT COMMUNICATION AND EXPECTATION

The preferred communication method between faculty member and students enrolled in this course is via the UFL-mail system. Please send e-mails to me at: lellis@arts.ufl.edu or LREllis@ufl.edu via your ufl.edu e-mail. I will endeavor to respond to all school related e-mails within 24 hours. Should you need assistance resolving technical issues, contact the UF Help Desk (<https://helpdesk.ufl.edu>) or call 352-392-4357.

IN-CLASS RECORDING

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.
