COURSE DESCRIPTION

In this class, I will offer physical practice, movement exploration, and assignments that will broaden your experience of/in contemporary dance. A typical class starts with a few minutes to check-in with each other. This time, though we are not “dancing” yet, is an important part of our work together. As a valued member of our community, I ask that you please be on time to class to participate in this moment.

Once we begin moving, we will activate our creative bodies through improvisation, warm-up, grounding precision exercises, choreographed phrase work, and repertory. In my class, I emphasize awareness of weight, employing momentum as a tool for both precise balance and fluid abandon. Through articulation and extension of the lower and upper body we will refine our capacity for efficient full-bodied movement. Phrase-work will focus on musical and rhythmic diversity, qualitative specificity, performance skill-building, and your creativity. We will enrich our understanding of dance practice through collaboration, deep listening, and rigor.

I will lead a movement practice and course of study influenced and informed by the following:

- My background working in modern/post-modern/contemporary dance, including artists, choreographers, and teachers that have impacted my dancing.
- My creative research as a choreographer in collaboration with my partner Alex Springer.
- My training in other forms of dance including improvisation, contact improvisation/partnering, and ballet, as well as my encounters with Hip Hop and West African.
- My expertise and my growing body of knowledge.
- YOU! What you bring to our practice is essential and I will respond to your needs and interests to the best of my ability.

THINGS TO KNOW:

*Fridays are area-wide master classes with faculty and guest artists. Though they are not required for this class, I highly encourage you to take advantage of these opportunities when you can. They will mostly take place in Studios G6.

COMMUNICATION

We will use Canvas (<http://elearning.ufl.edu>) as our home-base for communicating, compiling assignments, and collaborating. In addition, please only use your UFL.EDU for any email correspondence. Please be sure to communicate with me as the semester progresses. Knowing how you're doing in this class helps me support you!!!

Also, in an effort to protect my time with my family, know that I will not respond to emails after 4pm during the week or on the weekend. You can expect a response from me within 48 hours otherwise. If something is urgent, I will attend to it as quickly as possible.

MEETINGS + OFFICE HOURS – I will schedule one individual meeting mid-semester with each of you to check in and discuss your progress in class. In addition, my office hours are Mondays 1-2pm, Wednesdays 2-3pm, and by appointment. Please take advantage of those times and come visit my office (Room 232) or connect with me on Zoom (<https://ufl.zoom.us/j/3081353535>)!

- Ask you to be open to new and different ways of moving, thinking, and creating.

A typical class will include:

- ⇒ IMPROVISATION – developing comfort and dynamic range; sourcing the self and the community; tuning to the body.
- ⇒ WARM-UP / EXERCISES / EXPLORATIONS – ongoing and follow-along warm-up sequences; exercises that prepare us for phrase material and repertory by building on elements of momentum, grounding, strength, balance, efficiency, expansion, and specificity.

- ⇒ PHRASEWORK / REPERTORY – learning movement phrases from my creative research/repertory, as well as Varone repertory.

→ guiding principles + definitions

I believe that dance that is contemporary—of the “now” and the “new”—is a practice that builds on historical contexts to undergird current, relevant, and innovative methods of expressive embodiment. Contemporary dance is an evolving, fluid, and ever-shifting field and form. Contemporary Dance Practice is an invitation to explore the unknown and an opportunity to expand the field.

Practice, for me, is an ongoing state of being in which tremendous growth is possible. In service of fostering your and my own growth, I wish to emphasize that our practice is about cultivation rather than mastery. To that end, we will work with the rigor, creativity, playfulness, and attention to detail upon which meaningful development depends.

→ respectful learning environment + community agreements

We continue to navigate a complex and uncertain time. Each person is experiencing the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic differently and comfort levels vary. I ask that you commit to a culture of care as we work together. This means respecting our policies for health and safety as well as boundaries set by your peers. Please see the COVID-19 Appendix for more information.

In addition, and even more critical, is how we will practice care as we undo racism. Anti-racism is an ongoing process that I am committed to as a Contemporary dance artist, educator, and person. This will take shape in our class in different ways and I invite you to be open, vulnerable, and patient with me. I ask that you bring a radical empathy and hospitality to class—listening, supporting, and being compassionate is essential. Please come to me with any questions, concerns, or needs. You can find my personal undoing racism statement further on in the syllabus.

In order for us all to have a transformative, energetic, and generous experience, we will collectively participate in creating a respectful environment. A respectful learning environment is sustained by making community agreements, which we will do on the first day of class.

THE 5 C's of Xan's Contemporary Class – values I uplift and center:

CURIOSITY | CONFIDENCE | CREATIVITY | COLLABORATION | COMMUNITY

→ course expectations

(1) GROWTH + DEVELOPMENT (40% or 40 points; 10 points each)

I will evaluate you in each of these areas twice, once at the midpoint and once at the end. You will also do a self-assessment using the below rubric, due Tuesday, October 11th. Each of these areas will be evaluated with a numerical system associated with four growth terms: EXCELLING, DEVELOPING, IMPROVING, NEEDS ATTENTION.

⇒ ARTISTRY

- Musicality and Rhythm: student demonstrates clear timing in movement and movement phrasing, demonstrates clarity of rhythmic patterning, demonstrates precise and appropriate response to musical stimulus
- Performance Quality: student performs movement with confidence, demonstrate the ability to explore dynamic range with distinct clarity.

⇒ EMBODIMENT

- Kinesthetic Awareness: students are able to integrate a moderate level of anatomical/kinesiological approaches to the body and movement practice, including the use of proprioception, spatial awareness, healthful alignment, and range of motion. In addition, students are able to use a basic vocabulary in musculoskeletal description of self and other bodies.
- Movement Execution: Students are able to safely and accurately execute movement of moderate complexity, paying attention to weight transfer and detail.
- Energy and Conditioning: Students are able to utilize and develop a moderate level of strength, flexibility, endurance, and muscular stabilization and support, as well as energetic modulation and groundedness.

⇒ COMMUNICATION

- Student demonstrates an ability to articulate ideas with clarity and express critical thought.
- Student demonstrates an ability to listen to themselves and others, with respect for differing opinions.

⇒ COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

- Student takes care of the space as outlined in handbook/syllabus;
- Students demonstrate commitment to a collaborative learning environment by expanding one's willingness to work with all classmates versus a select few as the course progresses;
- Student shows active engagement physically, including volunteering to show/demonstrate/lead;
- Student commits to individual and shared responsibility for class/group based work.

(2) ASSIGNMENTS (60% or 60 points)

All information necessary to complete the assignments listed below will be provided in detail on Canvas.

- ⇒ BodyStory Essay (10 points): You will write a 2-3 page (500-750 word) essay reflecting upon and detailing your history as it relates specifically to your body. Due Friday, September 2nd by 5pm.
- ⇒ BodyStories Chapter Analyses (5 points each; 20 points total): Every two weeks (roughly), you will choose a chapter from Andrea Olsen's book BodyStories (provided to you as a PDF) and write a 200-250 word analysis on that chapter. There will be 5 opportunities to complete this assignment, but you will only need to do 4 to receive the 20 points needed. Due dates are all Thursdays by 8pm: September 8th; September 22nd; October 6th; October 27th; November 10th.
- ⇒ Midterm Artist Research Project (10 points): You will research and develop movement material inspired by a currently working dance artist (assigned to you by Xan). In addition, you will collaborate with a peer in class to combine your movement material and will perform these phrases as a duet. You will prepare a brief oral presentation to be shared before your performance as well. These performances will take place in class on October 18th + 20th.
- ⇒ Final "Exam" (10 points): You will be assigned a phrase from our class that you will finetune, augment, and/or refine for yourself. You will perform the phrase as a solo on the final day of classes, Tuesday, December 6th.
- ⇒ Final Paper (10 points): You will write a 3-4 page (750-1000 word) research/critique paper about a specific work created by your midterm contemporary dance artist. A draft of the paper will be due Tuesday, November 1st by 8pm. Peer review will take place over the weeks following and the final paper will be due Wednesday, December 14th by 8pm.

ATTENDANCE

It is imperative that you attend every class meeting for this course. Being present and supportive of your peers, and being engaged in our work together regularly is integral. For classes that meet two times a week, two (2) unexcused / undocumented absences are allowed. Beyond those absences, documentation is required to be considered excused. Each unexcused absence lowers your grade 5%. For example, if your overall grade is an A- (90-92%), you would potentially drop to a B+ or B.

That said, I recognize and respect that each person navigates self-care differently. If you feel sick at all, overwhelmed, or simply need to rest, you should stay home and take an absence. Being absent is not wrong. Excused absences are there to support your overall well-being. When you listen to and respect your body's needs, you are acting with maturity and intelligence.

EVENT ATTENDANCE

Your presence is required at the events highlighted and asterisked on the dance calendar (on Canvas). You will provide proof of presence to me within one week after the event. Your grade will be lowered by 2% for each missed required event.

A note about deadlines: let's face it, deadlines are both a burden and a necessity. The best learning you can do is ongoing, it's a process that has no outcome or due date. That said, I assign deadlines so that I have enough time to provide feedback on each assignment. I space out deadlines so that you can spend time putting meaningful thought into the assignments. But...LIFE HAPPENS and you may be delayed in completing work. If you email me before a deadline to communicate an assignment's lateness, you will be granted an automatic 48-hour extension. Further extensions will be decided on a case-by-case basis.

STATEMENT ON ANTI-RACISM AND INCLUSION

As a white cis-hetero dance artist and Assistant Professor of Contemporary Dance Practice, I am committed to undoing systemic racism by looking critically at systems that oppress my students, colleagues, and peers. I choose to enter this work through self-education; holding space for critical dialogue with my students and peers; participating in opportunities to advance my knowledge and awareness; devising and implementing inclusive pedagogy; and being held accountable by those around me with gratitude and humility. I will seek to employ and pay BIPOC, PGM, Brown, Latinx, LGBTQIAA+, disabled+ artists for their labor as collaborators, guest teachers, and speakers. I commit to this work so that I may respect and center the experiences of my students, colleagues, and peers and to cultivate healthful, equitable, and inclusive learning and creative environments.

ACCESSIBILITY STATEMENT

This statement is not my own, but is verbatim from a sample syllabus from a professor at Smith College, with relevant adaptations made for my class. The author is unknown, but their words spoke directly to my beliefs.

My take on accessibility starts with a simple statement. I trust you. You are a University of Florida student who has worked hard to be here. You are in this particular classroom because you have an interest in postmodern/contemporary dance, repertory, improvisation, and movement exploration. My goal is to create a classroom environment that communicates my trust and that allows each of us, myself included, to learn as much as possible and produce the best work we can by semester's end. To that end, I want to make my classroom, my office visits, our email exchanges and your experience of this course as accessible as possible. As I see it, communication between you and me is the key to achieving that goal. I also realize that my insight into what accessibility means is limited and therefore any statement I make will likely remain a work-in-progress for the duration of the semester.

CONTENT WARNING

In this course, we may cover content and materials that some might find difficult. It is important that in an artistic discipline course we do not shy away from engaging with materials that may be controversial or challenging. I encourage you to reach out to me if you are struggling with the course materials. In class, if you need to step away for a period of time as we are covering particular content, you may do so without penalty, but I ask that you remember that you are responsible for any information covered in your absence.

COLLEGE OF THE ARTS: MISSION STATEMENT

The University of Florida College of the Arts intends to be a transformative community, responding to and generating paradigmatic shifts in the arts and beyond. We do so by:

- ⇒ Embracing the complexity of our evolving human experience and seeking to empower our students and faculty to shape that experience fearlessly through critical study, creative practice, and provocation.
- ⇒ Collaborating effectively with the forces of change.
- ⇒ Preparing students to access and unsettle centers of power in a radically changing world.
- ⇒ Facilitating an arts education that will position emerging artists and researchers as catalysts for equity on local and global levels.

→ covid-19 university health and safety measures

Students, Faculty, and Staff are trusted to foster healthy SoTD class and creative environments through adherence to the following guidelines:

- If you are not vaccinated, get vaccinated. If you are vaccinated, get the booster. UF Provost's office has emailed the campus with available/ongoing resources.
- Students are welcome to use hand sanitizer or wash hands at the top of each class, rehearsal or production activity in shared spaces.
- Stay home and seek medical help for COVID-19 symptoms or exposure (persistent cough, fever 100.4+, new loss of taste or smell, muscle pain/headaches, shortness of breath, sore throat, chills, diarrhea, or feeling generally ill). The culture of hiding illness or the "show must go on" mentality must be avoided.

UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT:

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Click here to read the Honor Code. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

IN-CLASS RECORDING:

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.
