COURSE DESCRIPTION

"You write in order to change the world ... if you alter, even by a millimeter, the way people look at reality, then you can change it."

— James Baldwin

What is compassion? How do we show compassion as individuals, citizens, and professionals? What role do artists—visual artists, writers, dancers, thespians, singers and musicians—play in helping us better understand compassion, as well as how to give and receive it?

This online graduate course, Arts and Compassion will examine the historical and theoretical roots of compassion in philosophy, spirituality, religion, psychology, and science. The course will also explore the practical ways artists use their work to represent, embody, enact, and elicit compassion. Students will explore compassion through exposure to a variety of expressive media including literature, music, visual art, movement, and theater.

COURSE LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Define and assess how compassion has been demonstrated through various historical, social, and cultural lenses.
- Identify and articulate arts principles and practices as they relate to human compassion.
- Critique works of art and their ability to communicate about and/or elicit compassion.
- Apply principles of compassion to develop and execute an arts project designed to benefit the community.

REQUIRED TEXTS

hooks, b. (1995). Art on my mind: Visual politics. The New Press.

Trzeciak, S., Mazzarelli, A., & Booker, C. (2019). Compassionomics: The revolutionary scientific evidence that caring makes a difference. Studer Group.

Additional readings and online resources are posted in Course Materials on the course website and listed in the Course Outline table below.

STUDENT EXPECTATIONS

The course is an asynchronous course that requires personal time-management and attention to deadlines. The course is three credits, but only 8-weeks long, so it is intense and fast-paced. As a student you should expect approximately 16 hours of work per week for this course. There will be between 1-4 hours of module learning. The rest of the time students should be investing their efforts into the discussions, the creative practice blog, and assignments.

ASSIGNMENT DESCRIPTIONS

1. Content Competency Quizzes (26% of total grade): The quizzes are designed for students to assess student understanding of the readings and materials assigned for the week. Each content competency will include five questions that evaluate the student's comprehension of the assigned materials. Unless otherwise indicated, the quizzes are open-note quizzes and are not timed. Students have one attempt to complete the quiz.
2. Creative Practice Blog (22% of total grade): Students will make original creative art work (visual art, dance, digital art, theater, music, or creative writing) in response to prompts. The blog will document the creative process, the final creative product, and include a brief reflection. The Creative Practice Blog will be hosted on Adobe Spark. See Canvas for assignment details.
3. Discussion Board (15% of total grade): Students will participate in eight online discussions (one week in duration each, with minimum of two posts per week) using the Discussion Board on the course website. Students will be asked to complete a task or reflection related to compassion via Discussion with their classmates. See Canvas assignment for details.
4. Mini-Assignments (22% of total grade)
 - a. Reflective Essay I: Compassion Artwork Critique (100 points): Part One: Students will reflect on their personal history, culture, and context to describe the ideas related to compassion that have impacted their personal lives. Explorations will include: How have you come to define and experience compassion as an important human character trait? What concepts and principles from culture, art, spirituality, and religion have informed your current understanding of compassion? Part Two: Students will choose a single piece of art (which can be visual art, creative writing, dance, music, theater, etc.). Students will use critical analysis to examine the work of art through the lens of compassion. See Canvas assignment for details.
 - b. Compassion Project Proposal (100 points): Students will submit a proposal for their final Compassion Project and Presentation. The proposal will clearly link concepts of compassion to arts engagement for community members. The scope of the project will be able to be executed in 3 weeks or less. See Canvas assignment for details.

c. Reflective Essay II (100 points): Students will reflect on their ideas about compassion at the start of the course and notice how their ideas and perceptions may (or may not) have changed throughout the course and why. Students will reflect on discoveries made through the course content, assignments, and experiences. Students will also note how this course might impact their academic and professional work moving forward, including their practice in arts and medicine. See Canvas assignment for details.

5. Major Assignment (15% of total grade)

a. Arts and Compassion Project and Presentation (200 points):

- i. Students will design and undertake their own compassionate art-based project using ideas and principles from the course. Students will choose the context and artistic media that best suits their vision of a compassionate art practice. Students will execute this project in their community.
- ii. The presentation of their work will include an overview of the preparation, process, project, and outcomes of their project. It will include a conceptual analysis of their targeted audience, rationale for the choice of artistic media/processes and articulation of the facilitation process. It will also include a critical analysis of the project impact. Presentations will be video-recorded Pecha Kuchas. See Canvas assignment for details.

COURSE PROCEDURES AND POLICIES

1. Course Engagement: Students must log-in and engage online during the first week of class. It is expected that students will interact with the course materials at least three times during each week of the eight-week course. The class is fast-paced. Missing a week makes it nearly impossible to catch up. Students must not assume that they will be dropped from the class if they fail to participate in the first week or if they stop participating mid-course. For more information link here:
<http://gradcatalog.ufl.edu/content.php?catoid=10&navoid=2020#attendance>
2. Class Participation/Demeanor: It is expected that students will complete all course learning materials and all course assignments. Enthusiastic participation will lead to course success. Consistent interactions with the instructor and other students within the course are integral to learning. It is expected all interactions are undertaken with a level of professionalism that demonstrates competencies for a University of Florida graduate student.
3. Assignment Submission:
 - a. Assignment Due Dates and Times: All assignments, unless otherwise noted, are due at 7:59AM EST on the due date. All due dates and communications for this course assume Eastern Standard Time. If you are in a different time zone and would like to discuss adjusted deadline times, please email the instructor on the first day of class to arrange. Exceptions will be made at the discretion of the instructor.
 - b. Naming Your Documents: When naming your assignment documents, the following format must always be used: AssignmentName_YourlastnameFirstinitial. For example, if I was submitting my Research Paper, I would name the assignment: ResearchPaper_SamsA.
 - c. Titling Your Documents: It is expected that all Word or PDF documents submitted as assignments will have a title, the students name, page numbers, and the date at minimum.
 - d. Formatting Style for Documents: All work submitted, including discussion board posts and major assignments, must use APA formatting, including document formatting, in-text citations, and reference lists. Be sure to properly cite all sources that are paraphrased or quoted. Students should use direct quotations very sparingly, if at all.
 - i. See the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 7th edition or review the online APA Style Guide at the Purdue Online Writing Lab (OWL): <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/section/2/10/>.
 - ii. Formatting from other sources, especially automatic formatting software or Google Scholar, may not be reliable and students will be held accountable as reflected in their grade for assignments.
 - e. Late Assignment Submission Policy: Requirements for assignments and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>.

- i. Assignments will be accepted no later than five days after the due date except in extenuating circumstances with prior approval by the instructor. It is particularly important that students post Discussions on-time so that they benefit from the community of their cohort and vice versa.
 - ii. Points will be reduced from late assignments at a rate of 5% per day, starting at the posted deadline on the day of the due date.
 - iii. If you fall behind in work, it's always a good idea to email your instructor as soon as possible to see how you can work together to get on track.
 - iv. As stated below under "Technical assistance", any requests for late assignment submission due to technical issues MUST be accompanied by ticket number and record received from the UF Helpdesk when the problem was reported to them (<http://helpdesk.ufl.edu>). The ticket number will document the time and date of the problem. You are required to e-mail your instructor within 24 hours of the technical difficulty if you wish to request a make-up.
 - v. If your late assignment is due to a personal crisis you should immediately contact the Dean of Students Office (<https://dso.ufl.edu/about/contact/>) who can offer you support and work with your instructor to potentially excuse late assignments. For more information link here: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/#illnesspolicytext>
 - f. Grading Feedback from Instructor: Assignments will have a rubric that the instructor will use to evaluate students' grades.
 - i. Rubrics for assignments can be found directly under the assignment instructions. For Discussions, students must click on the three dots at the top right of the Discussion instructions and click "Show Rubric".
 - ii. The Instructor will potentially leave grading feedback in four places: Rubrics, Submission Comments, Quiz question feedback, or Annotated feedback in the text of the document submitted. Students are responsible for checking all of these places to benefit from instructor feedback.
4. Course Communications: It is the student's responsibility to communicate with the instructor promptly concerning any circumstances that might affect participation in the course. Please do not let any questions or concerns go unattended. In these short 8-week semesters, delaying important communications by even a week can be detrimental to successful completion in the course. It is the instructor's intention to respond to all e-mail communication within 48 hours, not including weekends. It is important to email the instructor through the Canvas feature as the instructor prioritizes these emails.
- a. Netiquette/Communication Courtesy: Written communication and electronic interaction are central to online learning. All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, threaded discussions and other communication structures. Students are expected to understand the common principles of netiquette. Additionally, please check spelling, grammar and formatting as is consistent with graduate-level correspondence.
 - b. Canvas Notifications: It is strongly recommended that students set their Canvas notifications to alert them by email to the following course communications from the Instructor: Announcements, Submission Comments, and Conversations (emails). Students can do this by clicking on their Avatar on the left navigation bar > Click Notifications > and make sure that the checkmark icon is toggled green under "Email Address" for Announcements, Submission Comments, and Conversations. Students will be responsible for timely responses (within 24 hours) to these Instructor communications even if they don't set their notifications.

5. General Course Questions: Before asking general questions of the instructors, be sure to check the syllabus, the course Canvas website, and Graduate Central, as your instructor will direct you to these sources. If your question is specific to your own work, progress, circumstances, grade, or is personal in nature, please email the instructor privately using the email function in Canvas.
6. Technical Assistance: If you have difficulty accessing online course materials, submitting assignments, or using any component of the online environment, please contact the Help Desk at helpdesk@ufl.edu, 352-392-4357–select option 2, and/or <http://helpdesk.ufl.edu>. If a technical problem effects an assignment deadline, you must provide the instructor with the ticket number and record provided to you by the UF Help Desk documenting your request for assistance. Only when extenuating circumstances are present or if the help desk could not resolve a timely request for assistance will an extension of a deadline be considered. You MUST e-mail the instructor within 24 hours of the technical difficulty if you wish to request an extension or make-up.
7. Online course evaluation: Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>.

ANTI-RACISM

In the Center for Arts in Medicine we are deeply committed to Anti-Racism. We are committed to achieving equity through awareness and action. We are committed to doing our part toward dismantling the ongoing legacies and injustices of colonialism, oppression and racism in the Center for Arts in Medicine, in the field of arts in health, on our campus, and in our country. We are committed to actively leaning into discomfort in order to understand, learn and create change anywhere injustice exists or harm has been done.

To review the full commitment, please visit: <https://arts.ufl.edu/academics/center-for-arts-in-medicine/anti-racism-statement/>

UF POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

1. Academic Honesty: UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor.

2. Students requiring accommodations: Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students requiring accommodations should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester as it can sometimes take up to 3 weeks or more to be seen by the DRC. Accommodations are not retro-active and begin once the letter of accommodation has been submitted to the course instructor.
3. Software Use: All faculty, staff, and students of the University are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against University policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate. We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to uphold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.
4. Course Evaluation: Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open.
5. Course Complaints: Should you have any complaints with your experience in this course, please visit <http://www.distance.ufl.edu/student-complaints> to submit a complaint.
6. Student Privacy: There are federal laws protecting your privacy with regards to grades earned in courses and on individual assignments. For more information, please see: <https://registrar.ufl.edu/catalog0910/policies/regulationferpa.html>
