

CREATING HEALTHY COMMUNITIES:

*Advancing health and health equity
through arts and public health collaborations*

CONVENING | OCTOBER 10 - 11, 2022 | Orlando, FL

Frequently Asked Questions

When is the event? Check-in opens on October 10 at 9:00 am at the Dr. Phillips Center for the Performing Arts. The day's program will begin promptly at 10:00 am and will conclude at 5:00 pm, with an evening performance and dialogue from 7:00-8:00 pm at The Citrus Club. On October 11, we'll convene again at the Dr. Phillips Center for the Performing Arts, with breakfast at 7:30 am and programming from 8:30 am to 3:45 pm.

Where is it?

In Person: Dr. Phillips Center for the Performing Arts, located at 445 S Magnolia Ave, Orlando, FL, 32801.

Online: Via Guidebook

Where do I park? There are over 3,300 parking spaces located within a short distance from the Dr. Phillips Center, and many different arrival options to accommodate our guests. From our primary parking garage at City Commons, take the covered Sky Bridge on Level 3 through CNL Tower 1 to the Dr. Phillips Center. Other convenient options are available such drop off, Lymmo stops, and other adjacent garages. *Please note that valet will not be available.

How will I get around? We are located in an area of downtown Orlando in which most things are walkable. There are e-bike and e-scooter rentals in the area, and UBER and Lyft operate in these areas if you require additional transport.

What should I expect? A dynamic and interactive two days of knowledge and practice sharing, provocation, embodied dialogue, and strategic visioning. The days are designed to move quickly and to draw out deep and broad thinking as well as new ideas and partnerships. We have brought together an intentionally broad range of disciplinary representation, and we want to hear from everyone. So, expect your voice to be heard.

Where can I find the program schedule? The schedule, list of presenters, discussion boards can all be found in the Guidebook App.

Who will be there? There will be approximately 300 people over the 2-day conference. Our group will include practitioners, educators, researchers, policy-makers, thought leaders and other stakeholders from the arts, public health, creative placemaking and community development sectors. Plus! Over 200 folks will be joining virtually – connect and interact with them using the Guidebook app.

How do I connect with other attendees? Once you log in to Guidebook, create a profile and start connecting and chatting with in-person and virtual attendees.

Will there be COVID Protocols? Yes. We are encouraging all attendees to be vaccinated and boosted, and wear masks while indoors. We believe that a core tenet of public health is collective action for the common good, and we encourage attendees to take steps to protect the most vulnerable among us.

CREATING HEALTHY COMMUNITIES:

*Advancing health and health equity
through arts and public health collaborations*

CONVENING | OCTOBER 10 - 11, 2022 | Orlando, FL

What should I wear? Attire is business casual. October in Florida is typically in the mid 70-80's during the day. There will be air conditioning in the buildings, so feel free to bring an extra layer of clothing to stay warm.

What should I bring? Energy, ideas and questions to provoke the deepest thought and dialogue. We limited our printed materials (such as notebooks, pens, totes, etc.) to lessen our carbon footprint, so if you like to take notes, please bring what you need.

Speaking of Carbon Footprints: Our convening is 100% carbon neutral. Find out more ways to reduce the impact of your attendance here, thanks to our partners at We Are Neutral.

Who should I contact with questions? If you have any questions, please contact our event coordinator Aly Maier Lokuta at alysnpm@ufl.edu

