College of the Arts Mission

The University of Florida College of the Arts intends to be a transformative community, responding to and generating paradigmatic shifts in the arts and beyond. We do so by:

- Embracing the complexity of our evolving human experience and seeking to empower our students, faculty, and staff to shape that experience fearlessly through critical study, creative practice, and provocation.
- Collaborating effectively with the forces of change.
- Preparing students to access and unsettle centers of power in a radically changing world.
- Facilitating an arts education that will position emerging artists and researchers as catalysts for equity on local and global levels

Course Materials: available on Canvas

III. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

A performance-based course aimed at developing the understanding various styles of dance within the African Diasporic realm as a technique and an art form. This class will concentrate on physical embodiment of the roots and commercial applications of Hip-Hop dance in the United States. The class intends to provide a better appreciation of the various Minority based cultures that helped to shape the many different forms of Hip-Hop dance and its influence on present day pop culture. The class is structured so that the students will have an extensive experience in several different styles of Hip-Hop: Social dance, Breakdance, House, Funkstyles, and commercial applications of their elements. Students will analyze movement through a contemporary dance lens to break down rhythm, space, movement, effort, time, shape, body and performance.

IV. LEARNING OUTCOMES:

1. Exhibit increased strength, balance, body articulation and stamina.
2. Make intellectual and physical dance connections to Hip-Hop music and popular culture.
3. Examine the socio-political movements that inspired the dance form and its iterations.
4. Differentiate, classify, and exemplify Hip-Hop dance canon.
5. Make informed commentary on popular culture and the current state of Hip-Hop culture.
6. Perform and appreciate African Diasporic Dance as a contemporary practice.

V. REQUIRED TEXTS AND MATERIALS:

All readings and viewings will be posted to Canvas as class notes and discussion boards.

Recommended text:

“Can’t Stop Won’t Stop: A history of the Hip-Hop Generation” by Jeff Chang

“Total Chaos: The Art and Aesthetics of Hip-Hop” Edited by Jeff Chang

*Class notes will be used as an element of contextualization of the physical experiences generated through class.

VI. COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND POLICIES: Expectations:

Student will

- Attend classes regularly, be on time and ready to work for the entire class period.
- Maintain a professional working attitude.
- Participate in all in class activities, engaging fully both mentally and physically.
- Strive to improve individual progress by demonstrating increased strength, balance and an increased awareness of body alignment, timing and spatial pathways.
- Observe dance class etiquette (cell phone use, dress code, lateness policy etc...)
- Strive to apply given corrections and concepts to movement.

Assignments:

Writing Assignment:

Dance Concert Attendance Assignment:

Attend at least one dance concert this semester. You may choose out of the following: BFA Showcase, Faculty Concert - Dance 2023 or any dance performance presented at the University Performing Arts Center. Attentive Observation: as you watch the performance, pay close attention to approaches, cultural contexts and artistic choices brought about in the work and compare it to your experience in class. The objective is to understand the intricacies and complexities in art making. Avoid making judgement. Hold onto your program and ticket stub/receipt.

Attend a Hip-Hop Event

Students will be required to attend a LIVE Hip-Hop event within the community and write a review of their experience. The event does not need to relate to dance, only to Hip-Hop culture. Students may attend a dance event that has a Hip-Hop performance and make commentary on that specific section. Other examples: Spoken word, Open Mic, Rap concert, or Live battles downtown. A grading rubric will be provided as well as a list of suggested events for viewing on canvas.

The Original 4 elements of Hip-Hop: Immersion assignments

There are 4 different assignments that correlate with the 4 elements of Hip-Hop: The DJ, the Emcee, the Bboy, and Graffiti. Students will complete all 4 assignments on canvas over the course of the semester to enhance their appreciation for the culture. Note that some assignments make take the student out into the community to submit pictures with their canvas assignment. All assignments open during the 2nd week of class to allow in-class discussion on the origins of Hip-Hop. Additional materials for the elements can be found through the canvas homepage.

Discussion Posts

Part of the examination of Hip-Hop culture comes from video viewings. Much of the history of the culture can be found immersed in the media of pop culture. There are youtube videos of live performances, interviews, and history that are better watched on the student's time outside of class. Discussions on these topics will be virtual and graded as relevant styles of dance are covered in class.

Exams:

Mid-term in-class assessment – 03/09

Mid-term individual feedback – via canvas

Final in-class assessment – 04/13

Team Feedback- 4/18

Final crew assessments – 04/25

Attendance:*For Studio Courses

For classes that meet three times a week (T/Th from 10:40am-12:35pm and F from 10:40am to 12:35pm):

- Students can take 3 absences with no documentation with no penalty.
- If the fourth absence is unexcused, it will result in 5% deduction from the final grade.
- Excused or unexcused, on the fourth absence, a meeting is required with the instructor and/or area faculty to assess the student's continued participation in the course.
- If the fifth absence and all subsequent absences are unexcused, each will result in an additional 5% deduction from the final grade.
- Requirements / opportunities to make up missed material is up to the instructor's discretion.
- Due to the participatory nature of the course that includes in-class collaboration along with partner and ensemble work, 5 unexcused absences may result in automatic failure of the course. Note: Any absence from class for the following reasons must be supported by official acceptable documentation to avoid a grade penalty: illness (doctor's note must be on official letterhead with address and phone number, noting the date and time of visit and diagnosis verifying that an absence from class is warranted and when the return to class activity is expected, doctor name and signature), serious family emergencies, special curricular requirements (e.g., judging trips, field trips, professional conferences), military obligation, severe weather conditions, participation in official university activities such as music performances, athletic competition or debate, court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena). Students must inform the instructor by the end of the second week of classes of religious observances of their faith that will conflict with class attendance this semester.

Tardy Policy: You are late after role has been taken/class has begun.

- Points will be deducted for being late or leaving early for any reason.
- There will be a 5-minute grace period.
- 3 tardies for regular class meetings equal 1 unexcused absence.

Make-up Policy

- Excused absences (those that can be documented) may be made-up in the following manner:
- Non-Majors: Approved Performance Event/Written Assignment
- <http://www.shcc.ufl.edu/excuse.shtml> (Infirmary)
- <http://dso.ufl.edu/> (Dean of Students)
- If unable to dance, you may 'actively' observe for full credit. You will complete an observation paper due at the end of class.
- Requirements / opportunities to make up missed material for unexcused absences is up to the instructor's discretion

Injuries are special cases. If an injury occurs see/contact me immediately regarding absences, make-up or possible withdrawal from the class.

Late assignments: Unless otherwise indicated, all homework assignments are due on canvas on the date listed. An essay received after the due date is late.

Studio Rules of Conduct:

In effort to keep our dance space a peaceful, safe and clean environment for our students we ask that you observe the following:

- No gum- this is also for safety reasons since we don't want dancers choking.
- No talking, food or quick pick-me-ups during class. However, you may keep water bottles inside the studio for hydration provided they have caps to prevent spills.
- All phone calls must take place outside of the studio and NEVER during class time. If you have an emergency situation you should inform the instructor prior to the start of class. Ringing cell phones, texting etc. are disruptive to classroom activity. Please be considerate. Note: To help organize accommodations, students should inform the instructor by the end of the second week of classes of religious observances of their faith that will conflict with class attendance this semester. Any absence from class for the following reasons must be supported by official acceptable documentation to avoid a grade penalty: illness (doctor's note must be on official letterhead with address and phone number, noting the date and time of visit and diagnosis verifying that an absence from class is warranted and when the return to class activity is expected, doctor name and signature), serious family emergencies, special curricular requirements (e.g., judging trips, field trips, professional conferences), military obligation, severe weather conditions, participation in official university activities such as music performances, athletic competition or debate, court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena).

University Policies

UF Absence Policy

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies, as follows:

Source: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

- Students are responsible for satisfying all academic objectives as defined by the instructor. Absences count from the first class meeting.
- In general, acceptable reasons for absence from or failure to participate in class include illness, serious family emergencies, special curricular requirements (e.g., judging trips, field trips, professional conferences), military obligation, severe weather conditions, religious holidays and participation in official university activities such as music performances, athletic competition or debate. Absences from class for court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena) must be excused. Other reasons also may be approved.
- You cannot participate in classes unless you are registered officially or approved to audit with evidence of having paid audit fees. The Office of the University Registrar provides official class rolls to instructors.
- If you do not participate in at least one of the first two class meetings of a course or laboratory in which you are registered, and you have not contacted the department to indicate your intent, you can be dropped from the course. You must not assume that you will be dropped, however.

The university recognizes the right of the individual professor to make attendance mandatory. After due warning, professors can prohibit further attendance and subsequently assign a failing grade for excessive absences. Please consult the following sites for UF's physical and mental health

Student on-line evaluation process:

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. The instructor is the only person that views your written comments.

Summary results of these assessments are available to students at

<https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/>

UF Policies:

University Policy on Accommodating Students with Disabilities:

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester University Policy on Academic Misconduct: Academic honesty and integrity are fundamental values of the University community. Students should be sure that they understand the UF Student Honor Code:

<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/> - UF students are bound by

The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (source: <http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/studentconduct-honor-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor in this class.

Counseling and wellness center contact information:

<http://www.counseling.ufl.edu/cwc/Default.aspx>, 392-1575; and the University Police Department: 392-1111 or 9-1-1 for emergencies. Netiquette: Communication Courtesy: All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, threaded discussions and chats.

Getting Help:

If applicable: For issues with technical difficulties for E-learning in Canvas, please contact the UF Help Desk at:

- (352) 392-HELP - select option 2 • <https://lss.at.ufl.edu/help.shtml>

Any requests for make-ups due to technical issues MUST be accompanied by the ticket number received from LSS when the problem was reported to them. The ticket number will document the time and date of the problem. You MUST e-mail your instructor within 24 hours of the technical difficulty if you wish to request a make-up. Other resources are available at <http://www.distance.ufl.edu/getting-help> for: Counseling and Wellness resources, Disability resources, Resources for handling student concerns and complaints Library Help Desk support.
