Course Description:

This course is an in-depth investigation into the fundamental sculptural elements of shape, form, and space. Students will build a solid understanding of three-dimensional concepts by learning basic sculptural skills and techniques. Students will apply these skills by relating them to contemporary issues and ideas within sculpture and the expanded field. We will creatively consider and research the sculptural possibilities of lines, planes, materials, and methods of formal manipulation, and movement that may occur with three-dimensional object and spaces. We will investigate how objects can creatively exist in the world and how artists put objects, materials, and the public realm into a state of play (and to work), in order to ask questions, make statements, and engage with our everyday lives.

Students will utilize basic, rudimentary materials and processes at the outset of the course and gradually build on a mastery of those materials and techniques. Concurrent with studio projects students will be discussing, researching, and responding to historical and current issues while considering the endless possibilities associated with sculpture and the expanded field. Students will work outside of class on sculptures. Each class new progress should be evident contributing toward the completion of each project.

Course Goals:

• Introduce students to the fundamental principles of sculptural concerns of form, material, and construction.

• Develop familiarity with historical and contemporary concepts of three-dimensional art.

• Identify spatial concepts, formal issues, and sculptural strategies.

• Investigate various modes of construction as a vehicle for sculptural development.

• Broaden technical skills of construction and visual language of material and form.

• Develop and demonstrate visual language and formal construction skills from ideation to proposal to finished object.

• Develop critical thinking and studio research skills

• Begin documentation/organizational habits in line with successful professional artists.

• Assess and critique the strengths and weakness of individual works.

• Develop visual ideas and generate personal themes for art-making.

Methods of Instruction:

The course structure consists of lectures, demonstrations, in-process critiques, critiques, discussions, speed assignments, and individual guidance. A large amount of class time will be utilized for studio work. Come to class prepared. Many class hours will be spent in the woodshop; proper attire is required. Out of class work will be required for research, exercises, readings, and projects. Each project will begin with detailed research and a project description session. Reading responses, project planning statements, planning diagrams, and speed assignments will complement each specific project. Critiques are the equivalent of exams.

Course Assignments and Timeline:
Although each assignment will have various conceptual and material guidelines it is each student's responsibility to creatively personalize and adapt the assignment to their own sensibility and areas of interest (no assignment should be an exercise – it should be art). In addition to the 5 major assignments, there will be speed assignments scheduled in the studio (when researching our major assignments).

The materials and tools needed during the course of the semester will vary from project to project. Required materials and tools will be discussed at the beginning of each project. Project-specific materials and costs will largely be left up to students to determine and manage. There are many cost-effective resources available for students and these will be discussed in class. Due to the open-ended nature of each project materials will differ for each student on each project.

Project Grading
Project grading will be based on the following criteria (below).
This is a sample gradesheet:

Assigned projects should improve a student’s ability to not only achieve project objectives, but also develop excellent problem-solving and research skills. New techniques and information will lead to innovation in your work so take risks and try new things. Clear and concise project plans, diagrams, and well-researched project statements for each project are expected and will provide a firm foundation for project development (and success).

A 4.0 Exceptional work, all criteria of assignment have been surpassed in a distinguished manner and solutions to problems presented exhibit a depth of understanding. In addition, student is engaged in exceptional studio practice, which includes active research, looking up artists recommended, asking relevant questions about other artists’ works or ideas, and being thoroughly engaged in the course content.

A- 3.67 Well-presented, superior work: all criteria of assignment were surpassed in a distinguished manner (including exceptional studio practice highlighted above). Minimal improvements could be made to the project overall.

B+ 3.33 Very good work: all criteria of assignment were surpassed, minor changes could be considered and executed to bring piece together and studio practice was exceptional.

B 3.0 Very good work: above average solutions and clear potential. Most criteria of assignment were surpassed with some improvements to be made. Execution was well done. Studio practice during the project was commendable.
B- 2.67 Good work: most criteria of assignment were met. Work showed promise with a few significant improvements to be made. Studio practice was adequate.

C+ 2.33 Slightly above average: work, most of the criteria of the assignment were met. The work is not yet a unified whole or cohesive statement, yet effort was made. Studio practice was adequate, but could be more reflective and thoughtful.

C 2.0 Average work: the assignment directions were followed and the requirements were met in a relatively routine way. Slippage in levels of craft, originality and presentation-studio practice was adequate, but could be more reflective and thoughtful.

C- 2.67 Slightly below average work: the assignment directions were followed and the requirements were minimally met, but there is much room for developing concepts further. The level of craft and breadth and depth of idea development needs to be improved. There is some evidence of studio practice, but the quality and quantity is lacking.

D+ 1.33 Below average work: an attempt to solve the problem was made, but there is much room for improving skills and developing your concepts further. The criteria of the assignment are barely met. Basic craftsmanship skills have been neglected and there is a lack of breadth and depth of idea development. There is minimal evidence of studio practice, but the quality and quantity is lacking.

D 1.0 Inadequate, below average work: the requirements of the assignment are not addressed. The execution of the work is careless and represents an incomplete effort. Work is substandard. There is little or no evidence of studio practice.

D- .67 Unacceptable work and effort: the requirements of the assignment are not addressed. The execution of the work is careless and represents an incomplete effort. Work is substandard. There is little or no evidence of studio practice.

E 0 Unacceptable work and effort: the work submitted is inadequate; the requirements of the problem are not addressed. The piece represents careless and/or incomplete effort. No evidence of studio practice. Work is substandard. Or, assignment was not submitted.

Late Work:

All projects, reading responses, and research projects must be completed on time for full credit. Due dates are announced in class and posted on canvas.
• Late work is not accepted.
• If the timeline states that a project is due at the beginning of class, turning it in at the end or after class is considered late.
• You must have work finished before the start of class on critique days or your work will not be critiqued.
• Work should be viewed in progress during classes in advance of critique. Surprise projects will not be critiqued.
• It is the student's responsibility to turn in all work on time.

Course Communication:

Students must check their school email accounts regularly and the E-Learning course site. Students are responsible for any information, deadlines, and updates emailed to their UF email accounts. University COVID/Monkey Pox Policy:

IMPORTANT COVID-19 CLASSROOM POLICIES
UF guidance: https://coronavirus.ufl.edu/health-guidance/
· The university recommends – but does not require – people to wear masks on campus and encourages everyone to get vaccinated and stay current with boosters to minimize COVID-related risks. Studies and guidance from the CDC state that both unvaccinated and vaccinated individuals can transmit the current COVID-19 variant to unvaccinated persons.
· If you are not vaccinated, get vaccinated. Vaccines are readily available at no cost and have been demonstrated to be safe and effective against the COVID-19 virus. Our UF Health experts tell us that even if you’ve had COVID-19, you still need to get vaccinated. Having had COVID does not provide nearly as much protection as the vaccine. Visit this link for details on where to get your shot, including options that do not require an appointment: https://coronavirus.ufhealth.org/vaccinations-2/vaccine-availability/
· At the University of Florida, caring for yourself and others is the cornerstone of our campus community. We expect students, faculty and staff to follow the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the Florida Department of Health guidance to protect their health and support the safety of everyone. We encourage you to monitor your health and if you feel ill, take steps to minimize interactions with others. Visit the UF Health site https://coronavirus.ufhealth.org for additional information.
· Please continue to follow healthy habits, including best practices like frequent hand washing.

University Attendance Policy:

Please see University of Florida Attendance Policies and criteria for excused absences at: https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/
If an absence occurs, it is the student’s responsibility to make up all work. Students should check with the instructor or another student outside of class time when they miss a class (prior to missing the class if possible), as in- and out-of-class exercises are sometimes specially assigned. Students should bring a doctor’s note for any class from which they expect to be excused.

Course Attendance Policy:
Please address any concerns, problems, and questions regarding this class to the instructor as they arise. Each student is allowed three unexcused absences during the semester. Late arrival or early departure will count as an absence. 3 absences will result in a grade reduction of one letter grade per accumulation of three absences. Critique days are important elements of class. You should only be absent on a critique day in cases of emergency. Attendance at all classes meeting times, critiques, assigned VAS lectures, and field trips is mandatory. You must work during scheduled studio times, or it is considered an absence. Please be here for class time.

- Active participation is required for all sessions.
- Each student is allowed three absences during the semester. Save them for when they are needed.
- After three absences your participation grade and your project grades (see: project development in project grade rubrics) will drop.
- If you miss more than six class meetings, you will fail the course.
- Any three late arrivals or early self-dismissals will count as one absence.
- If you are more than 15 minutes late, you will be counted as absent. It is your responsibility to see that the record is corrected from an absence to a tardy if you are late.
- A missed class does not constitute an extension of an assignment.
- Attending class unprepared for a discussion, critique, workday, or presentation will be considered an absence. Students must come prepared to every class with proper attire (work shirt, pants, and closed-toed shoes).
- If you miss a class please ask another classmate for information on the material we covered that day.
- It is vital that you are present on critique days. Missing a critique day is like missing an exam. You should
- only be absent in cases of emergency.
- If you are going to be absent, please contact me via e-mail prior to class.

Tardiness:

Arrival to class after start of class will be noted and three such incidences will count as one absence. Leaving early from class will also be considered as tardiness and will be counted as such. Students are responsible for satisfying all academic objectives as defined by the instructor. Students who do not attend at least one of the first two class meetings of a course or laboratory in which they are registered, and who have not contacted the department to indicate their intent, may be dropped from the course. The university recognizes the right of the individual professor to make attendance mandatory. After due warning, professors may prohibit further attendance and subsequently assign a failing grade for excessive absences.
UF Illness Policy:
Students who are absent from classes or examinations because of illness should contact the professor. If you are unable to attend class due to illness, please email the instructor prior to the class meeting time. Please state your name, class, as well as the reason you will not be attending class that day.

UF Religious Holiday Policy

Students, upon prior notification of their instructors, shall be excused from class or other scheduled academic activity to observe a religious holy day of their faith. Read the full UF policy here: https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/#religiousholidaystext
