Course Description

This course provides an intermediate understanding of specific musical theatre instrumental styles and performance practices from the 1930s to the present. These styles include all forms of musical theatre genres from the classic musicals of George Gershwin and Cole Porter through Rodgers and Hammerstein and Lerner and Loewe, to the rock and contemporary styles of Andrew Lloyd Webber and Lin Manuel Miranda. Each musical will incorporate a variety of these styles and technical requirements. Additionally, the class delivers knowledge of rehearsal and performance techniques and terminology unique to a musical theatre “pit” orchestra. This course is recommended for all musicians who would like to broaden their commercial music theater repertoire and enhance their skills for engagements with professional companies.

Prerequisites:

Audition required or by recommendation of faculty.

Course Objectives/Goals

Musical Theatre Instrumental Ensemble teaches skills essential to competing in the current music theatre industry from performing in a Broadway pit orchestra and touring shows to theme park engagements and cruise line orchestras. The course will provide students with the experience of performing in a variety of venues and spaces, reading charts and creating musical editions unique to a specific production, accompanying singers in a variety of formations both on and off-stage, and working with click-tracks and computer assisted arrangements.

The course develops professional rehearsal standards, etiquette, and the ability to work within a group.

EVALUATION:

Music/Score Preparation	40%
Participation/Attendance and Professional Conduct	30%
Final Project (Performances)	30%
	100%

Required Materials:

1. Musical Score (provided),
2. Individual instruments as assigned.

Final Exam: The Musical Theatre Instrumental Ensemble is a performing group. Students will be graded on their final public performance of the assigned repertoire in lieu of a written final exam.

ATTENDANCE/GRADING/ POLICY:

Professionalism, collegiality, and participation in each class period are important to the curriculum requirements of this course. Therefore, attendance and active engagement are required. Two late arrivals at a rehearsal are counted as one absence. Unless excused, each absence beyond one absence will result in a lowering of one letter grade. These two absences would be equivalent to missing a week of class. Excused absences are limited to medical illness documented by physician, family emergency documented by the appropriate person and religious holidays. You are responsible for all material missed. In the event of any absence, check the course syllabus and class schedule on the material covered.

NOTICE:

Rehearsals and performances are copyright protected and may not be recorded by any means. Lectures and notes given in this class are the property of the university/faculty member and may not be taped without prior permission from the lecturer and may not be used for commercial purpose. Students found to be in violation may be subject to discipline under the university's student conduct code. The above procedures and schedule in this course are subject to change in the event of extenuating circumstances.
