Course Description

This course introduces the students to the operations in different aspects of sound design. Students will learn to use a Digital Audio Workstation (DAW) through lectures, exercises and projects.

Course Goals and/or Objectives

- Understanding of audio production practices and techniques.
- Development of vocabulary and knowledge at a comfortable level for engagement on a production.
- Acquiring skills and techniques with a Digital Audio Workstation.
- Skills to edit dialog, sound effects, and music at professional studio level.
- Ability to design sound and implement the design digitally.

Textbooks, Software and Instructional Materials

- Recommended: Modern Recording Techniques 8th Edition by David Miles Huber and Robert Runstein
- Required: DAW User Guide (Free Download)

Course Fees

Material and supply fees are assessed for certain courses to offset the cost of materials or supply items consumed in the course of instruction. A list of approved courses and fees is published in the Schedule of Courses each semester. (UF-3.0374 Regulations of the University of Florida).

Material and supply and equipment use fee information is available from the academic departments or from the schedule of courses (Florida Statutes 1009.24). The course fee for this class is $136.88.

Graded Assignments

Exercise 1

In this project, you will create a Project Template in the Digital Audio Workstation (DAW) used in this course. This template will serve as the starting point for the three projects in this course.

Project 1

In this project, you will create a "radio edit" of a song of your choice. The song you choose must be more than 3 minutes in length, and the final edit must be no more than 30 seconds. The final edit must contain at least 3 distinctive parts from the original song, edited to perfection. The goal is that the editing is unnoticeable to the average listener, and that the end product is musically pleasing.

Project 2

In this project, you will create a story told solely with sound. You are not allowed to use any dialog or language to help tell the story. Instead, find sounds from a good free sound library such as sounddogs.com, or record your own with your phone. Feel free to use music but it shouldn't be the main story telling device.

Project 3

This is the final and most comprehensive project for this course. In this project, you will record, edit, and mix all the sounds for a short video. The video can be anything from a TV commercial, a movie trailer, a scene from a movie, etc. This project is carried out and graded in four stages – dialog, sound effects, music and final mix.

Course Policies

Assignments

There are a number of class assignments including 1 exercise and 3 projects. It is important to complete the class projects in the time assigned, as completed projects will become the basis for continued projects. A description of each assignment will be uploaded to Canvas when it is assigned.

Grading

Your assignment grades will be based on these factors:

- Your understanding of the assignment and your ability to follow instruction
- The completion of the project during the time required
- All factors that are in the assignment are addressed completely and correctly
- Your quality, level of research, preparedness and ability to discuss your project using the correct terminology when called upon.

Participation and Attendance

The success of this course is based on discussion and class participation. Attendance is vital. Your first unexcused absence from class will be permitted without penalty. The second unexcused absence will lower your final grade by 5%. The third unexcused absence will lower your final grade by 15%. The fourth unexcused absence will lower your final grade by 30%. Two (2) late arrivals and/or early departures to/from class will count as one (1) absence.

Excused absences are consistent with university policies in the undergraduate catalog (https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/) and require appropriate documentation.

Quiz/Exam Policy

There are 3 quizzes to be given at the beginning of classes. Each quiz is worth 5 points. There is no final exam for this course.

Make-up Policy

Late assignments or Missed Exams will be marked down at 80% unless a prior arrangement is made. Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at:

https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx

Course Technology

The students will be required to have access to a personal computer with the access to the Internet. Word editing software will be required for written assignments, if any. Students should have personal access to the Internet. Other technologies will be introduced during the course session. The student is required to have a fast USB hard drive or thumb drive to store and back up project files.

Course Communications

Students can communicate directly with the Instructor regarding the course material through email. Electronic communication must demonstrate a formal tone and style and , unless absolutely urgent, will be responded to M-F 10am-6pm

UF Policies

Honest Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code (sccr.dso.ufl.edu/process/student-conduct-code/) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Class Demeanor

Students are expected to arrive to class on time and behave in a manner that is respectful to the instructor and to fellow students. Please avoid the use of cell phones and restrict eating to outside of the classroom. Opinions held by other students should be respected in discussion, and conversations that do not contribute to the discussion should be held at minimum, if at all.

Students requiring accommodations

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center by visiting https://disability.ufl.edu/students/get-started/. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

Netiquette Communication Courtesy

All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, threaded discussions and chats, more information can be found at: http://teach.ufl.edu/wp-content/uploads/2012/08/NetiquetteGuideforOnlineCourses.pdf

Online course evaluations

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at https://evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/.
