Course Description

This course is designed as an introduction to the basic principles, theories, and techniques of acting. Students will learn to effectively translate literature into production through performance. We will explore the acting process through character study, improvisation, physical/vocal awareness, ensemble relationship, and developing a personal connection to audience and text.

Course Objectives

1. To develop actor tools such as concentration, focus, relaxation, ensemble work, risk taking, sensory recall, as well as physical and vocal awareness.
2. To experience the process of acting by creating and presenting in improvisations and scripted scene work.
3. To establish a shared vocabulary based on craft and industry standards.
3. To act truthfully in imagined circumstances.

Required Text:

Audition by Michael Shurtleff, copyright 1978
(I will be posting PDFs of the chapters on Canvas for you to read. However, I suggest you get your own copy of this book if you can).

Grading Details

You will not be graded according to your acting “ability”. You will, however, be graded on your development in the class and your commitment to the work. This includes fully participating in all exercises and supporting your classmates in their learning process. It also includes coming to class and being prepared to perform daily. A willingness to try new things and stretch your comfort zone (whatever that might be) will get you far in this class.

Assignments

Rehearsal Logs/Journals:

Each student will be required to do (at least) 2 30 minute rehearsals/explorations outside of class each week (after starting scene work).

Journal entries can/should include:

What (if any) discoveries or observations did you make?

What surprised or delighted you?
What roadblocks did you hit?

The entry should also include:

*Time of rehearsal

*Date

*Who you worked with

*Where you worked

Journal Entries/Logs will be due on Sunday at 10pm for the previous week. If you have your sessions done before the deadline please send them early.

Shakespeare Monologues

Actors choose a short Shakespeare monologue (more details in class) to workshop in class. We will explore the ideas of being seen, meaning what you say, relationship (to both audience and partner). It may seem odd to begin with this kind of text. However, in my experience, this is one of the best ways to create trust, honesty, and vulnerability in the space. There will be a final sharing of these monologues.

Scene 1/Midterm

Actors will be assigned partners and scenes from published plays or screenplays. Scenes will be workshopped in class 2 times and the “Guideposts” will be implemented. Rehearsal outside of class is expected.

Scene 2/Final

Actors will be assigned partners and scenes from published plays or screenplays. Guideposts and other elements from the term will be implemented, and final scenes will be shared during finals week.

Production Response Papers:

Students are expected to attend Pipeline and The Music Man during this term. Ticket vouchers will be provided for shows. If the voucher is lost or stolen, it CANNOT be replaced. Tickets must be purchased well in advance. SHOWS SELL OUT. A sold out show is not an excuse and you will be help accountable for the assignment regardless. More details on this paper TBA.

CLASS POLICIES

Covid:

If you are experiencing COVID-19 symptoms please stay home, get tested and follow guidance from the Center for Disease Control! Course materials will be provided to you with an excused absence, and you will be given a reasonable amount of time to make up work.

Attendance:

Barring the above circumstances, students are expected to be in attendance daily and to be on time. Students are allowed one “unexcused” absence that does not require documentation and does not conform to the UF “acceptable reasons for absence.”. Any other “unexcused” absence will result in a penalty of a full letter grade (10%) from the final grade per “unexcused” absence. To be considered “excused” an absence must be accompanied by appropriate official documentation. Religious observances do not require documentation.

Any absence from class for the following reasons must be supported by official acceptable documentation to avoid a grade penalty:

- Illness—doctors note must be on official letterhead with address and phone number, noting the date and time of visit and diagnosis verifying that an absence from class is warranted, doctor name and signature
- Serious family emergencies
- Special curricular requirements (e.g., judging trips, field trips, professional conferences)
- Military obligation
- Severe weather conditions
- Participation in official university activities such as music performances, athletic competition, or debate
- Court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena)

*To help organize accommodations, students should inform the instructor by the end of the second week of classes of religious observances of their faith that will conflict with class attendance this semester.

Any student that acquires 3 absences (either excused or unexcused) will be required to meet with this course’s instructor and/or area faculty to discuss the student’s continued participation in the course.

For Majors: Failure to attend this meeting will result in Artistic Probation.

Tardiness:

Tardiness is disruptive to a class of this nature and will not be tolerated...it is also one of my greatest pet-peeves. Any tardiness will be recorded along with attendance.

Attendance will be taken promptly at the start of class. If you enter the room after the check-in has been started, you will be considered tardy. If you enter the room anytime after 20 minutes of the official start of the class you will be marked absent for that class day.

That being said, I am a reasonable human being who has my own set of access needs. As such, please communicate with me if something comes up.

2 tardies = 1 absence

Clothing/Dress:

Please wear clothes you can move in without adjustment. Practice this at home and see if you have the impulse to pull at or adjust your clothes.

Be prepared to be barefoot or wear rehearsal/movement shoes.

No Hats

No necklaces, bracelets, or dangly earrings

No Jean

No Logos or big patterns

Please keep your colors as neutral as possible (you will not be penalized for colors, but if you have an option between a black t-shirt and a neon green t-shirt, go with black).

*You may dress for your scene if you so desire!

UNIVERSITY POLICIES:

Academic Honesty

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code.” On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Conduct Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Honor Code:

If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor

*Plagiarism is an act of Academic Misconduct. Any act of plagiarism may result in failing the course.

Disabilities

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the Disability Resource Center. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with the instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester <https://disability.ufl.edu/get-started/>

FINAL NOTES FROM INSTRUCTOR:

This kind of specialized education (really any education) is a serious privilege. Please honor that. Honor those people who don't have this opportunity. Honor those who are not allowed any education. Honor the people who have supported and cared for you to make this possible, by always bringing your best, your most curious, your most eager, your most dedicated selves to our work.

You are the owners of your experience.

On a more personal note...

I am a very kind, reasonable person and instructor. I expect rigor AND I understand that life happens (and our access needs are all different). Communicating with me will go a long way. Please keep the lines open if you need extra help, support/accommodations or simply want to chat about the work.

This syllabus is subject to change based on the needs of the class.
