Course Description

This course will provide small group ensemble performance experience in the jazz idiom. Students will memorize jazz standards, learn melody interpretation techniques, rhythmic techniques to communicate to other members of the ensemble, and small group compositional techniques for harmonizing jazz standards and original compositions. Students have to record an original in the studio and develop a professional promotional photo, business card and bio. 5 public performances are required. This course may be repeated. A passing grade of B or better is required for this course to count towards a Jazz Minor. Prerequisites: Jazz Fundamentals 1

Course Objectives/Goals

This course is an integral part of a solid music education in which students gain experience performing in the more prevalent small groups of today's music markets. The course's primary goal is to provide students with opportunities for small group performances so they may implement jazz theory, chord/scale relationships, rhythmic communication techniques within the small group, and free improvisation techniques.

Attendance Policies

All students must have the learning experience of playing with a full jazz combo. With that in mind, all class rehearsals are required. Any unexcused absences will lower the final grade automatically 1/2 a letter grade, i.e. ...1 unexcused = A to A-, 2 unexcused = A- to B, etc. All excused absences will require the proper written documentation that the student has been excused from school during the time in question. Without this approval we cannot excuse the absence.

NOTE: A Passing Grade of B is required for this course to count towards the UF Jazz Minor.

Tardy

A tardy is defined as not being in class when class begins. Members who arrive late to "3 classes" will have their grade lowered ½ letter grade.

Students with disabilities

"Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester."

Academic Honesty

At the University of Florida every student signed the following statement: "I understand that the University of Florida expects its students to be honest in all their academic work. I agree to adhere to this commitment to academic honesty and understand that my failure to comply with this commitment may result in disciplinary action up to and including expulsion for the University." The instructor of this course fully endorses this statement and will not tolerate academic dishonesty. Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing is subject to an automatic E and further disciplinary action. All violations of academic honesty will be referred to the Dean of Students Office for disciplinary action without exception. <http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/honorcodes/conductcode.php>

*If you are repeating this course at UF, please be aware that turning in any part of any written assignment that you submitted for this course in the past also constitutes academic misconduct. See "Scope and Violations" under the Honor Code above.
