Where can you go when you start at the top? Anywhere.

The University of Florida is one of the most respected universities in the country, offering more majors on one campus than almost any other university in the nation. We are a great starting point — one of the best — for students who have ambitious aspirations.

Apply

Deadlines vary by program
First-year students
admissions.ufl.edu/apply/freshman
Transfer students
admissions.ufl.edu/apply/transfer
Graduate students
admissions.ufl.edu/apply/graduate

Tour

Picture yourself on our campus at admissions.ufl.edu/visit.

Afford

For financial aid information, visit sfa.ufl.edu.

Live

Dedicated to students majoring or interested in the arts, Reid Hall offers studio space, gallery space, and practice hours in the evenings, which permit residents to rehearse musical instruments in their rooms. Learn more at housing.ufl.edu.
Learn
Explore your academic opportunities at admissions.ufl.edu/learn/academics.

Pathway to Campus Enrollment, or PaCE, provides freshmen with the opportunity to start their UF degree online and then transition full-time to campus. Studio courses are offered in-person to PaCE students. Learn more at admissions.ufl.edu/learn/pace.

The University of Florida Honors Program promotes education with disciplinary depth and interdisciplinary competency by providing service rooted in the power of opportunity, the strength in community, and the love of a challenge. Learn more at honors.ufl.edu.
The process of discovery is a vital aspect of developing your singular, creative voice. Nowhere is that more a part of your education than at the University of Florida College of the Arts.

The University of Florida College of the Arts intends to be a transformative community, responding to and generating paradigmatic shifts in the arts and beyond. We do so by:

- Embracing the complexity of our evolving human experience and seeking to empower our students, faculty, and staff to shape that experience fearlessly through critical study, creative practice, and provocation.
- Collaborating effectively with the forces of change.
- Preparing students to access and unsettle centers of power in a radically changing world.
- Facilitating an arts education that will position emerging artists and researchers as catalysts for equity on local and global levels.

arts.ufl.edu
What do arts students bring to future employers?

Teamwork
I AM A DESIGNER. I collaborate with others to solve problems.

I AM A DIRECTOR. I work with my peers to bring a shared vision to life.

Communication skills
I AM A CREATIVE. I can engage any audience.

I AM A THEORIST. I articulate the abstract.

Adaptability
I AM AN ARTIST. I welcome critique and thrive on feedback.

I AM A PERFORMER. I prepare for all situations and easily navigate change.

Innovation
I AM A DIGITAL ARTIST. I push the boundaries of technology to create new works and solutions.
Your Creative Home

The College of the Arts is home to multiple courses, clubs, and activities that are open to all students on campus regardless of your major. Music ensembles, theatre shows, digital production agencies, art clubs, and dance troupes add to the vibrance of UF's campus culture.

Artists are increasingly experts in multiple fields. What will you choose? And, why not both?

Opportunities are limitless when you combine individualized arts programs and a top-tier research university. Customize your academic journey to define your own artistic voice. Majors at the College of the Arts can be combined with other programs to receive a second bachelor's, minors, certificates, or even a master's degree.

Check out student profiles and find more information at arts.ufl.edu/why-not-both.

UF is home to the Pride of the Sunshine Gator Marching Band, one of the oldest and most prominent music ensemble on campus.
The School of Art + Art History is an intimate school situated within an expansive, preeminent research university. Our programs offer small class sizes, experiential learning, and individualized instruction. Students tailor their educational pathway toward their career goals and research interests. Combined with the vast resources of a top ranked, comprehensive university, opportunities for interdisciplinary research are unparalleled. Learn more at arts.ufl.edu/art.

Let your art inspire the world

Contact: (352)273-3055
saahadmissions@arts.ufl.edu
Degrees

- Bachelor of Arts in Art or History of Art
- Bachelor of Fine Arts in Art or Graphic Design
- Master of Arts in Art Education, Art History, or Museology (Museum Studies)
- Master of Fine Arts in Art or Design & Visual Communications (Graphic Design)
- Doctor of Philosophy in Art History
- Minors in Art History or Studio Art
- Certificates in Art Education, Ceramics, Curatorial Studies, (graduate certificate), Graphic Design, or Museum Studies (graduate certificate)
- Studios in Art and Technology, Ceramics, Creative Photography, Drawing, Painting, Printmaking, or Sculpture

A Global Perspective

The School of Art + Art History hosts robust Visiting Artists and Scholars programs and delivers a global art history curriculum through virtual connections and (when possible) travel and study abroad opportunities such as: Art Basel Miami • Graphic design studios and advertising agencies in Atlanta, Georgia • Museums and galleries in New York City, Philadelphia, and Washington, D.C. • France, Guatemala, Italy, Peru, and more.

---

Collaborate and Explore

With hundreds of active student organizations to choose from, students have many opportunities to extend their skills and build networks beyond the classroom. Student organizations host workshops and social events, curate their own guest speaker programs, and fund student-designed trips.

- Digital Arts Media Network (DAMN)
- Handbuilt or Thrown Clay (H.O.T. Clay)
- Art History Association
- Painting and Drawing Association (PDA)
- We Love Museums
- SA+AH Student Ambassadors
- VoxGraphics

Learn more at orgs.studentinvolvement.ufl.edu/organizations.

Spaces for Makers

- High-res digital photo studios, darkrooms, and lighting studios
- Printmaking studios (intaglio, lithography, relief, silkscreen, serigraphy) and letterpress
- Ceramics studio with electric, gas, and wood kilns, as well as 3D printing
- High-end digital fabrication lab
- Metal shop, foundry, and wood shop
- Professional Production Studio (PPS)
The School of Music is a tight-knit community of performers, composers and historians embedded in a preeminent university. From the first day, students majoring in music study one-on-one with studio professors and perform in premier ensembles, all while having the opportunity to explore what makes the University of Florida a Top 10 public university. Learn more at arts.ufl.edu/music.

Areas of Study
Brass
Keyboard
Percussion
Strings
Woodwinds
Voice

Live out loud, be heard

Contact: 352.392.0224
music@arts.ufl.edu
Degrees

Bachelor of Music in Music Specializations: Music Composition, Music Theory, Performance (Instrumental/Vocal), or Combination with an Outside Field

Bachelor of Music in Music Education Specializations: Choral or Instrumental

Bachelor of Arts in Music Specializations: Entrepreneurship, Event Management, Music History and Literature, Ethnomusicology, or Music Theory and Composition

Master of Music in Music Concentrations: Choral Conducting, Composition, Electronic Music, Ethnomusicology, Instrumental Conducting, Jazz Studies, Music History and Literature, Music Theory, Performance, or Sacred Music

Master of Music in Music Education Concentrations: Choral Conducting, Composition, Electronic Music, Ethnomusicology, Instrumental Conducting, Music History and Literature, Music Theory, Performance, or Piano Pedagogy

Doctor of Philosophy in Music Education

Doctor of Philosophy in Music Concentration: Composition, or Music History and Literature

Doctor of Musical Arts in Music Concentrations: Choral Conducting, Composition, Instrumental Conducting or Performance

Minors in Jazz Studies, Music History/Ethnomusicology, Music Performance, or Music Theory

Certificates in Music Performance

---

The Music Never Stops

Explore new musical pursuits and places over the summer or get acquainted with UF before you apply through virtual connections and (when possible) travel opportunities like Study abroad and internships in Salzburg, Austria • Brazilian Music Institute in Miami, Florida • Sacred Music Workshop at UF • International Piano Festival at UF • Gatorland Band Camps at UF

---

An All-Steinway School

Since 2010, UF has been an “All-Steinway School” and the owner of the largest collection of Steinway & Sons pianos in Florida. Steinway products are considered the best keyboard instruments for training students and are the choice of 90% of the world’s performing concert pianists.

---

An Ensemble for Everyone

At the University of Florida, we celebrate and practice musical genres from across the globe, and our ensembles travel perform locally, nationally, and internationally. All ensembles are open to any student on campus by audition.

- Jazz Bands
- Jacaré Brazil
- Men’s Glee Club
- Opera Theatre Workshop
- Sunshine Steelers
- University Symphony Orchestra
- Wind Symphony
- Women’s Chorale

and many more at arts.ufl.edu/academics/music/ensembles.
With a range of traditional and contemporary performance and design experiences, School of Theatre + Dance students are immersed in a creative and diverse environment surrounded by professional artists and scholars. Students have the flexibility to study a focused professional curriculum or a more general degree in order to explore outside interests. Learn more at arts.ufl.edu/theatreanddance.
Degrees

Bachelor of Arts in Dance
Bachelor of Arts in Theatre with a specialization in General Theatre, Stage Management, or Theatre Management
Bachelor of Fine Arts in Dance
Bachelor of Fine Arts in Theatre Performance with a specialization in Acting or Musical Theatre
Bachelor of Fine Arts in Theatre Production with a specialization in Costume Design, Lighting Design, or Scene Design
Master of Fine Arts in Theatre with focus in Acting or Design
Minors in Dance, Theatre, or Theatre Production

Endless Opportunity

School of Theatre + Dance students perform at dance festivals and in front of agents in New York City. In addition to seasonal mainstage productions, student organizations produce and design their own shows and projects in the McGuire Pavilion and around campus.

Dance in a Suitcase
Florida Players
MOD Project
Theatre Strike Force
Harn Choreographer in Residence
Internships with the Hippodrome State Theatre

Learn more at orgs.studentinvolvement.ufl.edu/organizations.

Breakthrough the Industry

Faculty at the School of Theatre + Dance are veteran and practicing performers, choreographers, directors, and designers with industry connections locally and internationally. Learn from virtual and visiting masterclasses with leading choreographers, playwrights, actors, and directors. Listen to lectures and discussions with Broadway and entertainment actors and producers. Participate in co-productions with New York theatre companies, the Hippodrome State Theatre, and others.

Take the Stage

Act, dance, design and direct in the Nadine McGuire Theatre and Dance Pavilion, which includes:

Constans Theatre: Proscenium theatre featuring an 18 x 40-foot flexible apron with 415 seats

Black Box Theatre: Flexible performance space properly equipped with lighting, sound, rigging, draperies and dance floor.

G-6 Studio: Premiere dance studio recently equipped with concert-grade projection capabilities
The Digital Worlds Institute is a recognized leader in combining digital arts, storytelling, computer science, and interactive technologies. The interdisciplinary field of digital arts and sciences is ideal for students whose intellectual and creative energies are not readily defined by traditional academic disciplines. Students gain experience working in project-based classes and team-oriented environments, reflecting the dynamic of the modern professional industries that they will enter after graduation. Learn more at digitalworlds.ufl.edu.
What do you want to create in the digital world? Whether your passion involves digital art, storytelling, computer science, or technology, our programs fuel the pursuit of your own individual dreams.

Degrees

Bachelor of Arts in Digital Arts & Sciences (BADAS)
Bachelor of Arts in Digital Arts & Sciences (BADAS) • UF Online
Master of Arts in Digital Arts & Sciences (MIDAS)
Minor in Digital Arts & Sciences

A Creative Laboratory

LUMA at Digital Worlds Studios is a student-run digital media production group. Founded with the goal of providing students the opportunity to work on real-world projects, LUMA offers creative services to members of the UF and Gainesville communities. Digital Worlds faculty and staff provide guidance on collaborative projects that support the students' professional development.

The Gator Nation is Everywhere

And so are our graduates. The Digital Worlds Institute provides graduates with the technical, creative, collaborative, and critical-thinking skills that are highly prized by 21st century employers in the entertainment, communications, and technology sectors. Our alumni find careers in a variety of fields like:

- 2D/3D Digital Animator
- Game Designer and Developer
- Motion Graphics Animator
- UI/UX Designer
- Concept Artist
- Level Designer
- Visual Effects Artist
- Cinematographer
- Character Modeler
- Production Coordinator
- Software Engineer
- Technical Animator
- Character Artist
- Interface Programmer
- Digital Storyteller
- Interaction Designer

Innovation On-Campus and Online

The Digital Worlds Institute is a premiere example of hybrid online and on-campus education. The campus facilities are fully equipped to allow synchronous teaching that pulls online students into the same classroom as students on campus.

Virtual Production Studio: Open-space stage with a large green screen, large white cyc, motion capture, audio, and video recording technologies

Polymodal Immersive Classroom Theater: Panoramic venue that hosts physical and virtual audiences for ultra-widescreen media, interactive games, digital performing arts events, and real-time classroom teaching and learning

Reality Lab: The epicenter for interdisciplinary student work in creating serious and applied gaming environments, using tools like the KINECT and other devices and software being pioneered at UF

THE GYM: Dynamic workspace that cultivates creativity and collaboration
The Center for Arts in Medicine is committed to advancing research, education, and practice in arts in medicine, locally and globally. Through ongoing interdisciplinary research, training programs, and dynamic academic programs, the center serves as a national model for arts in health. Students in the program are at the forefront of the field, studying with leading researchers and practicing in their own communities.

Contact: 352-273-1488
cam@arts.ufl.edu
The transformational power of the arts is undeniable. Sometimes a remedy is composed of equal parts medicine and art.

Degrees

Master of Arts in Arts in Medicine

Undergraduate Certificates in Applied Theater for Health, Dance in Medicine, Music in Medicine, or Visual Arts in Medicine

Graduate Certificates in Arts in Medicine or Arts in Public Health

Why Not Both?

Combine your passion for creativity with your courage to transform health. Undergraduate certificates can be combined with almost any bachelor’s program.

4+1 Bachelor’s + Master of Arts in Arts in Medicine Online

Students receiving a Bachelor of Music or Bachelor of Science (Public Health, Biology, Microbiology, Chemistry, or Psychology) can start work on their master’s degree in junior or senior year and finish studies with only one additional year.

Leading and Healing

UF Health is one of the nation’s leading healthcare systems and boasts one of the strongest and longest-standing clinical arts in medicine programs. Students volunteer alongside professional artists in residence at the hospital and in the community:

- Performing at patients’ bedsides
- Leading dance classes for multiple sclerosis and Parkinson’s patients
- Facilitating art activities for local children’s homes

Learn more at artsinmedicine.ufhealth.org.

A Global Partnership

Faculty and students collaborate and practice in their communities, around the nation, and across the world. Annually, the center hosts research intensives in Gainesville for students and practitioners as well as multiple international research and outreach projects.

The COVID-19 and Social Distancing study explores the psychosocial effects of quarantine to understand how the arts help people cope and communicate public health messages.

The EpiArts Lab analyzes how engaging with the arts impacts long-term health in the United States.

The Music in Emergency Medicine study seeks to demonstrate that live patient-requested music can positively impact quality and cost of care.

The Future of Health

The Center for Arts in Medicine is leading and collaborating on research internationally on the role the arts can have in healthcare and public health. Student research labs—made up of students across campus—are involved in data analysis and research studies that are changing how health systems see the arts and culture as partners in care.
The Center for Arts, Migration, and Entrepreneurship (CAME) connects networks of scholars, artists, creatives, entrepreneurs, and advocates to the engines of creative and cultural economics at the heart of migration.

Defining the arts as all forms of cultural production, the center seeks to effectively create new models and power alignments that return value—entrepreneurship—to cultural producers to build more just global futures. Through community-responsive programming, research, and creative production, the center facilitates and extends the innovation, resilience, and ingenuity of diasporic and migratory communities.

The cultural forms that persist, remix, or emerge along the tributaries of human movement generate abundant tangible and intangible value.

CAME takes an intentionally broad approach to its disciplines, recognizing both the challenges and opportunities each term carries.

Students have the opportunity to participate in performances ensembles and research activities at arts.ufl.edu/came